TOM HICKEY'S NATURE SHOW

THE DIRECTOR'S CUT

Raven Lyn Clemens

Episode One

HELLO THERE MY FELLOW NATURE HEADS!

It's me your favourite nature guy, Tom Hickey! Today I'm going to show you some really cool animals hanging out in the wild untamed wilderness!

Grab my hand as I lead you into a fantastic world of discovery and ADVENTURE!

HERE WE GO!!!

Today we have our first beast, the common night croaker!

SCREEEEE!!

These guys are part of a species known as "flappers" due to their horribly mutated arms that allow them to move through the air like water.

If you look closely you'll notice that these pathetic creatures haven't got a single finger bone on their arms!

However, their large bellies are full of tiny thin bones collected from the kills they've made.

One can only assume that these wretched slobs are searching for the kind of bones that they can use to build themselves normal arms, in order to finally live like the rest of us regular christian folks.

Up next we have the horrific backyard slinker! These cowards prefer to stay on the down low in order to avoid more powerful animals.

Their bodies can be twisted and distorted in order to hide in tight nooks and crannies.

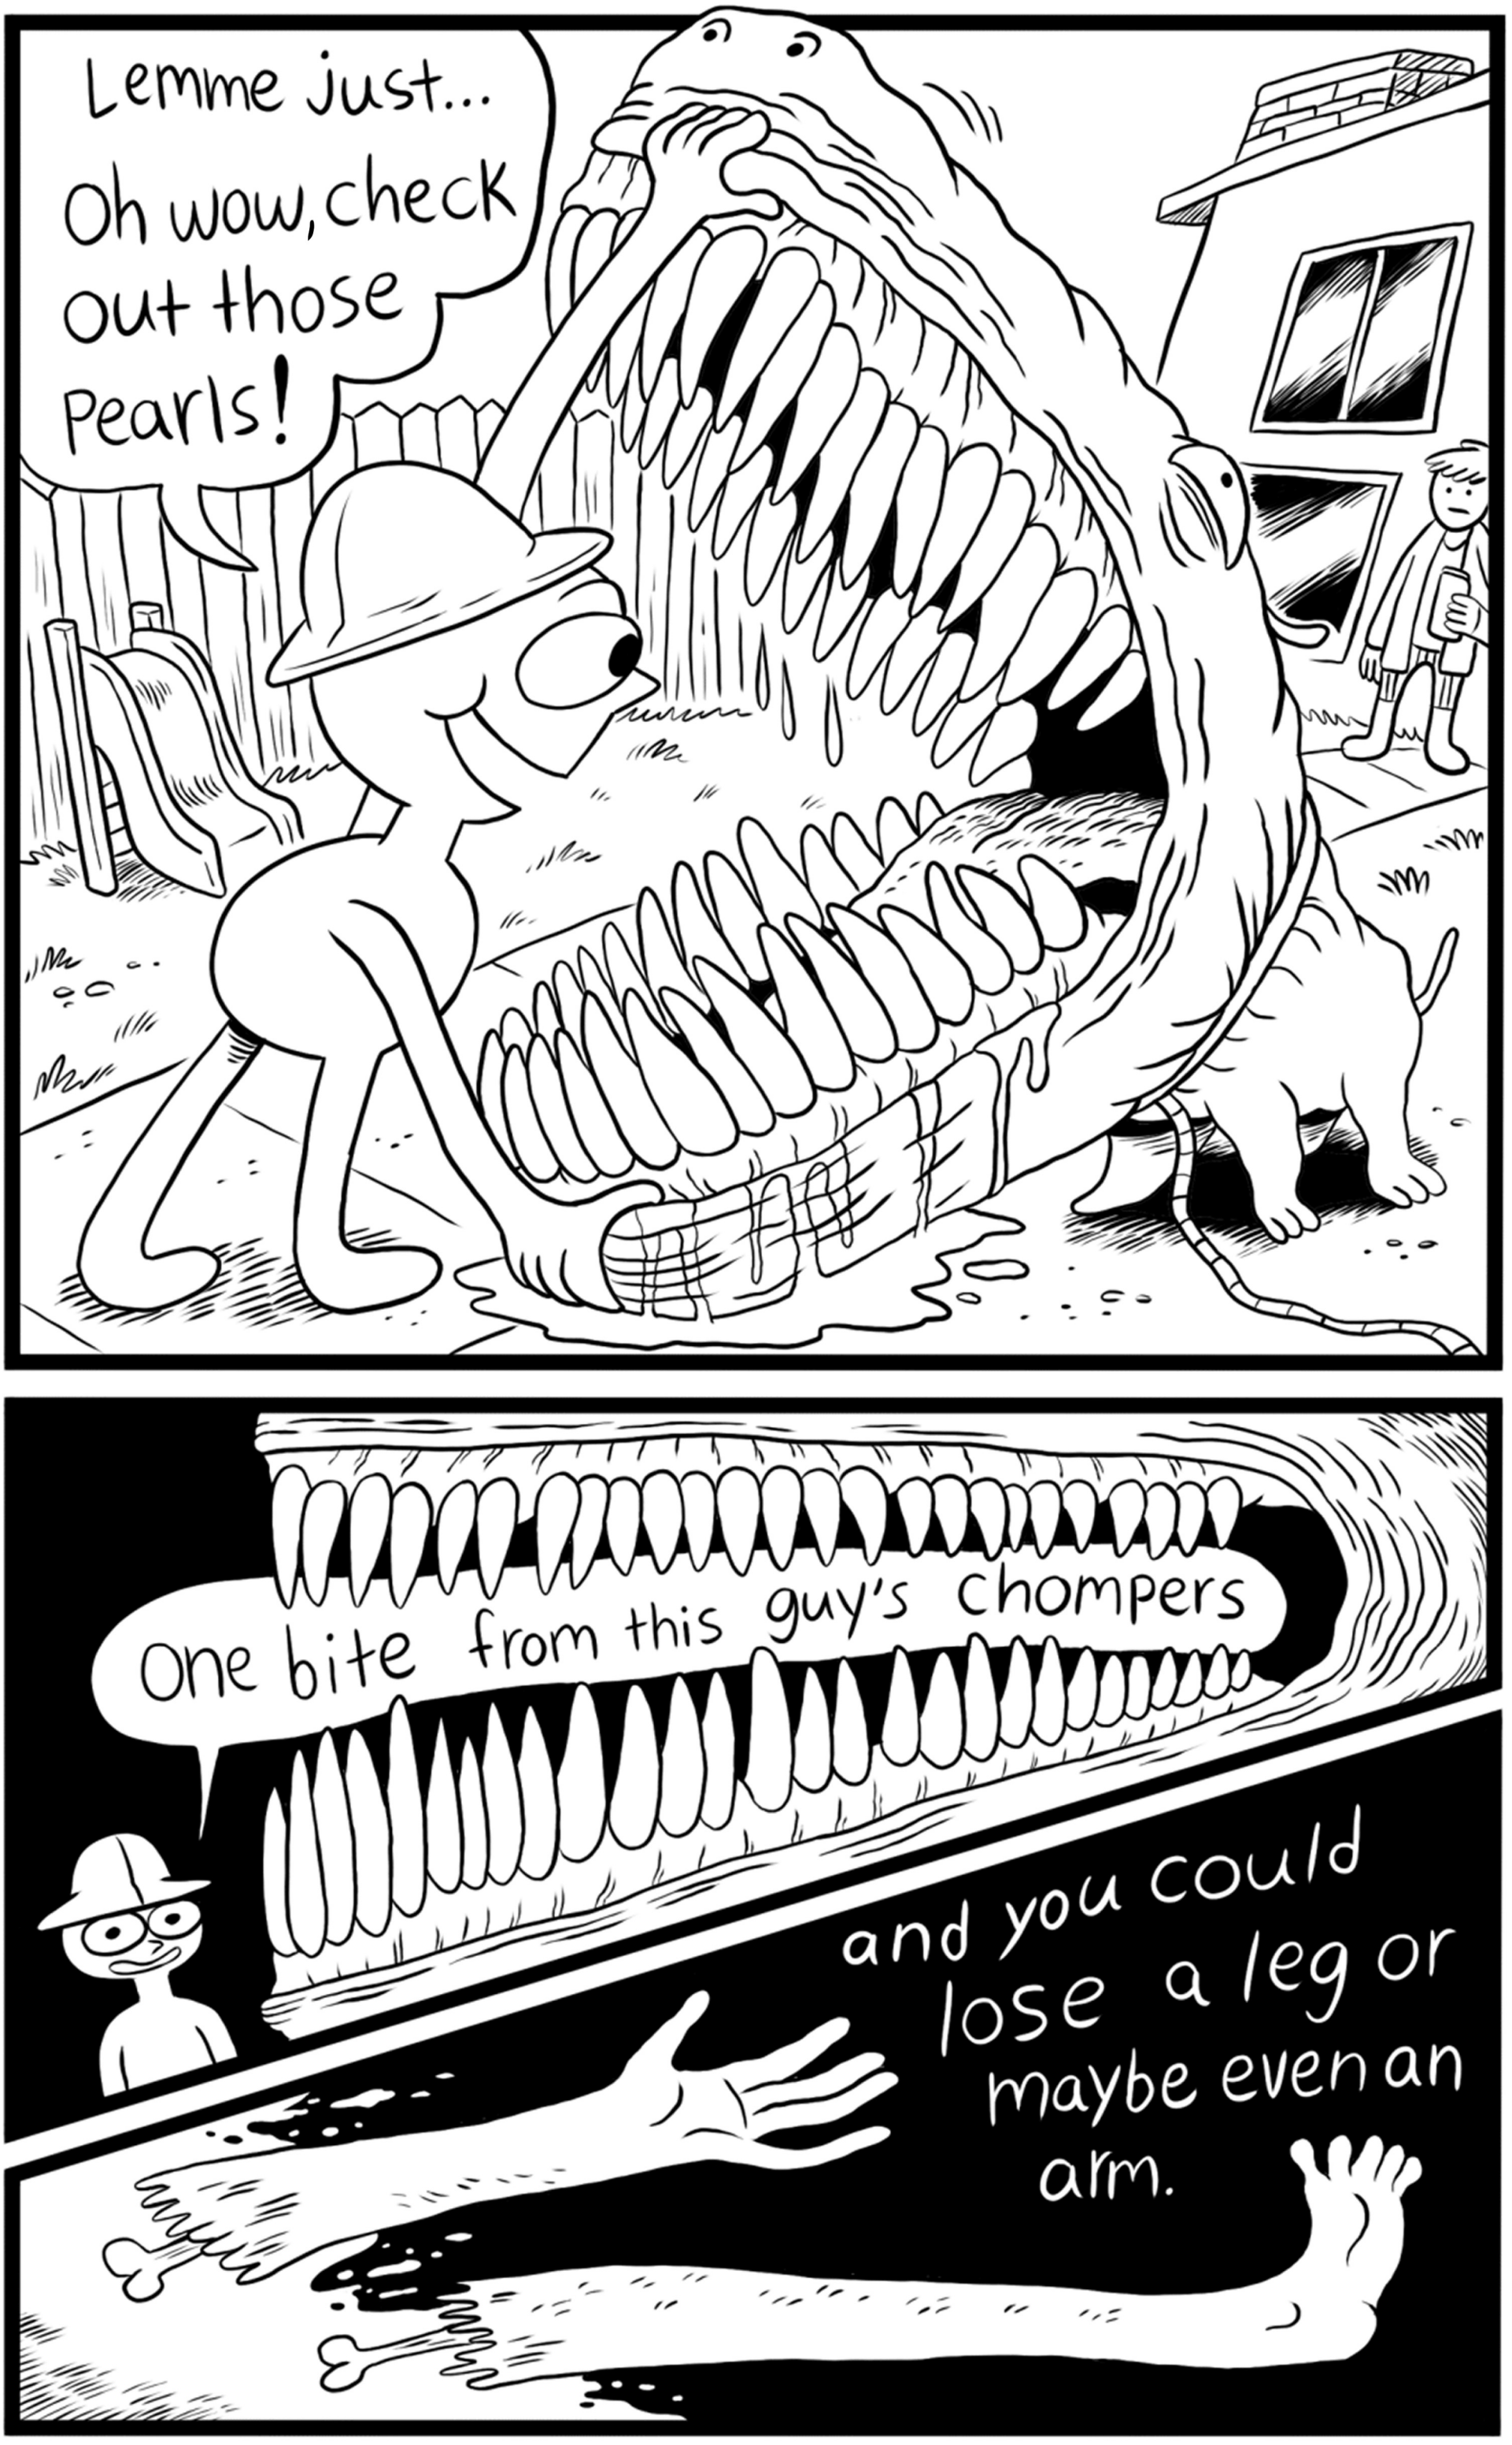
This animal is easily startled and will burst into a flight of terror whenever confronted with sudden movement or sound.

SNAP!

The slinker is a timid little guy, so it's really important to only observe these creatures from a distance and to never EVER touch them under any circumstances.

WHOA! CHECK ITOUT NATURE LOVERS!! It's the King of nature himself!....

THE BULKER! This guy rules over all of the other animals in the nature kingdom cus he has such a big dangerous mouth.



Lemme just...
Oh wow, check out those pearls!
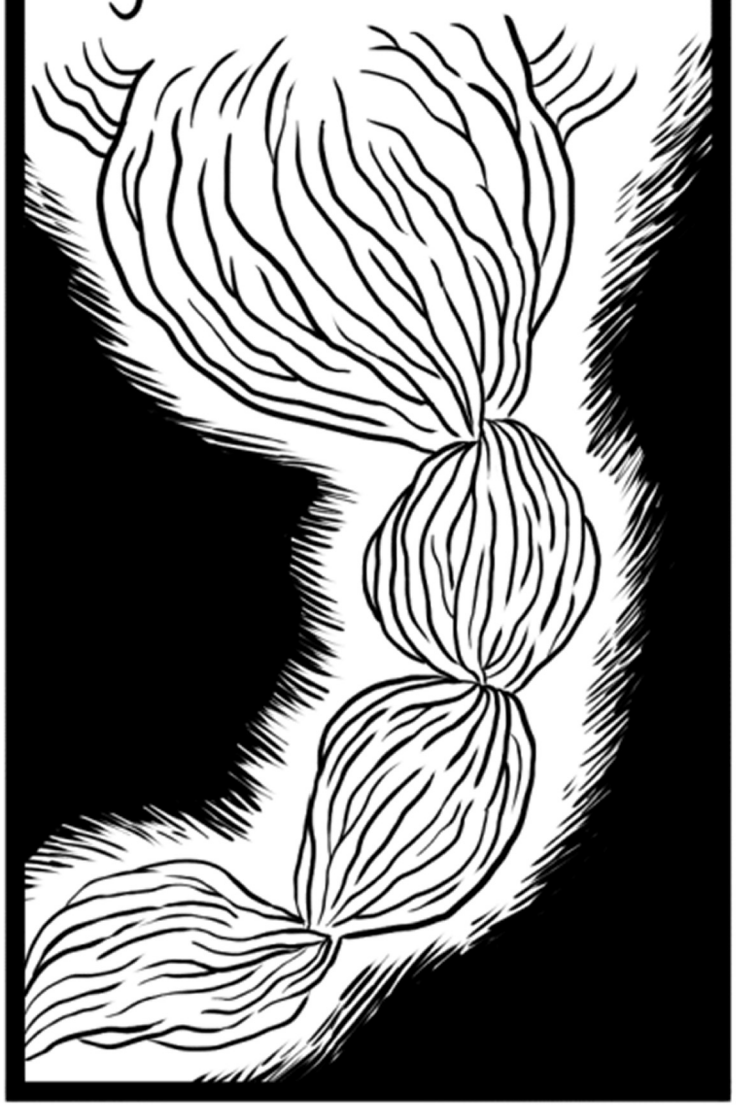
One bite from this guy's chompers and you could lose a leg or maybe even an arm.

The bulker also surprisingly doesn't have any bones besides it's skull and teeth.

It's body is actually held together by really tight muscles



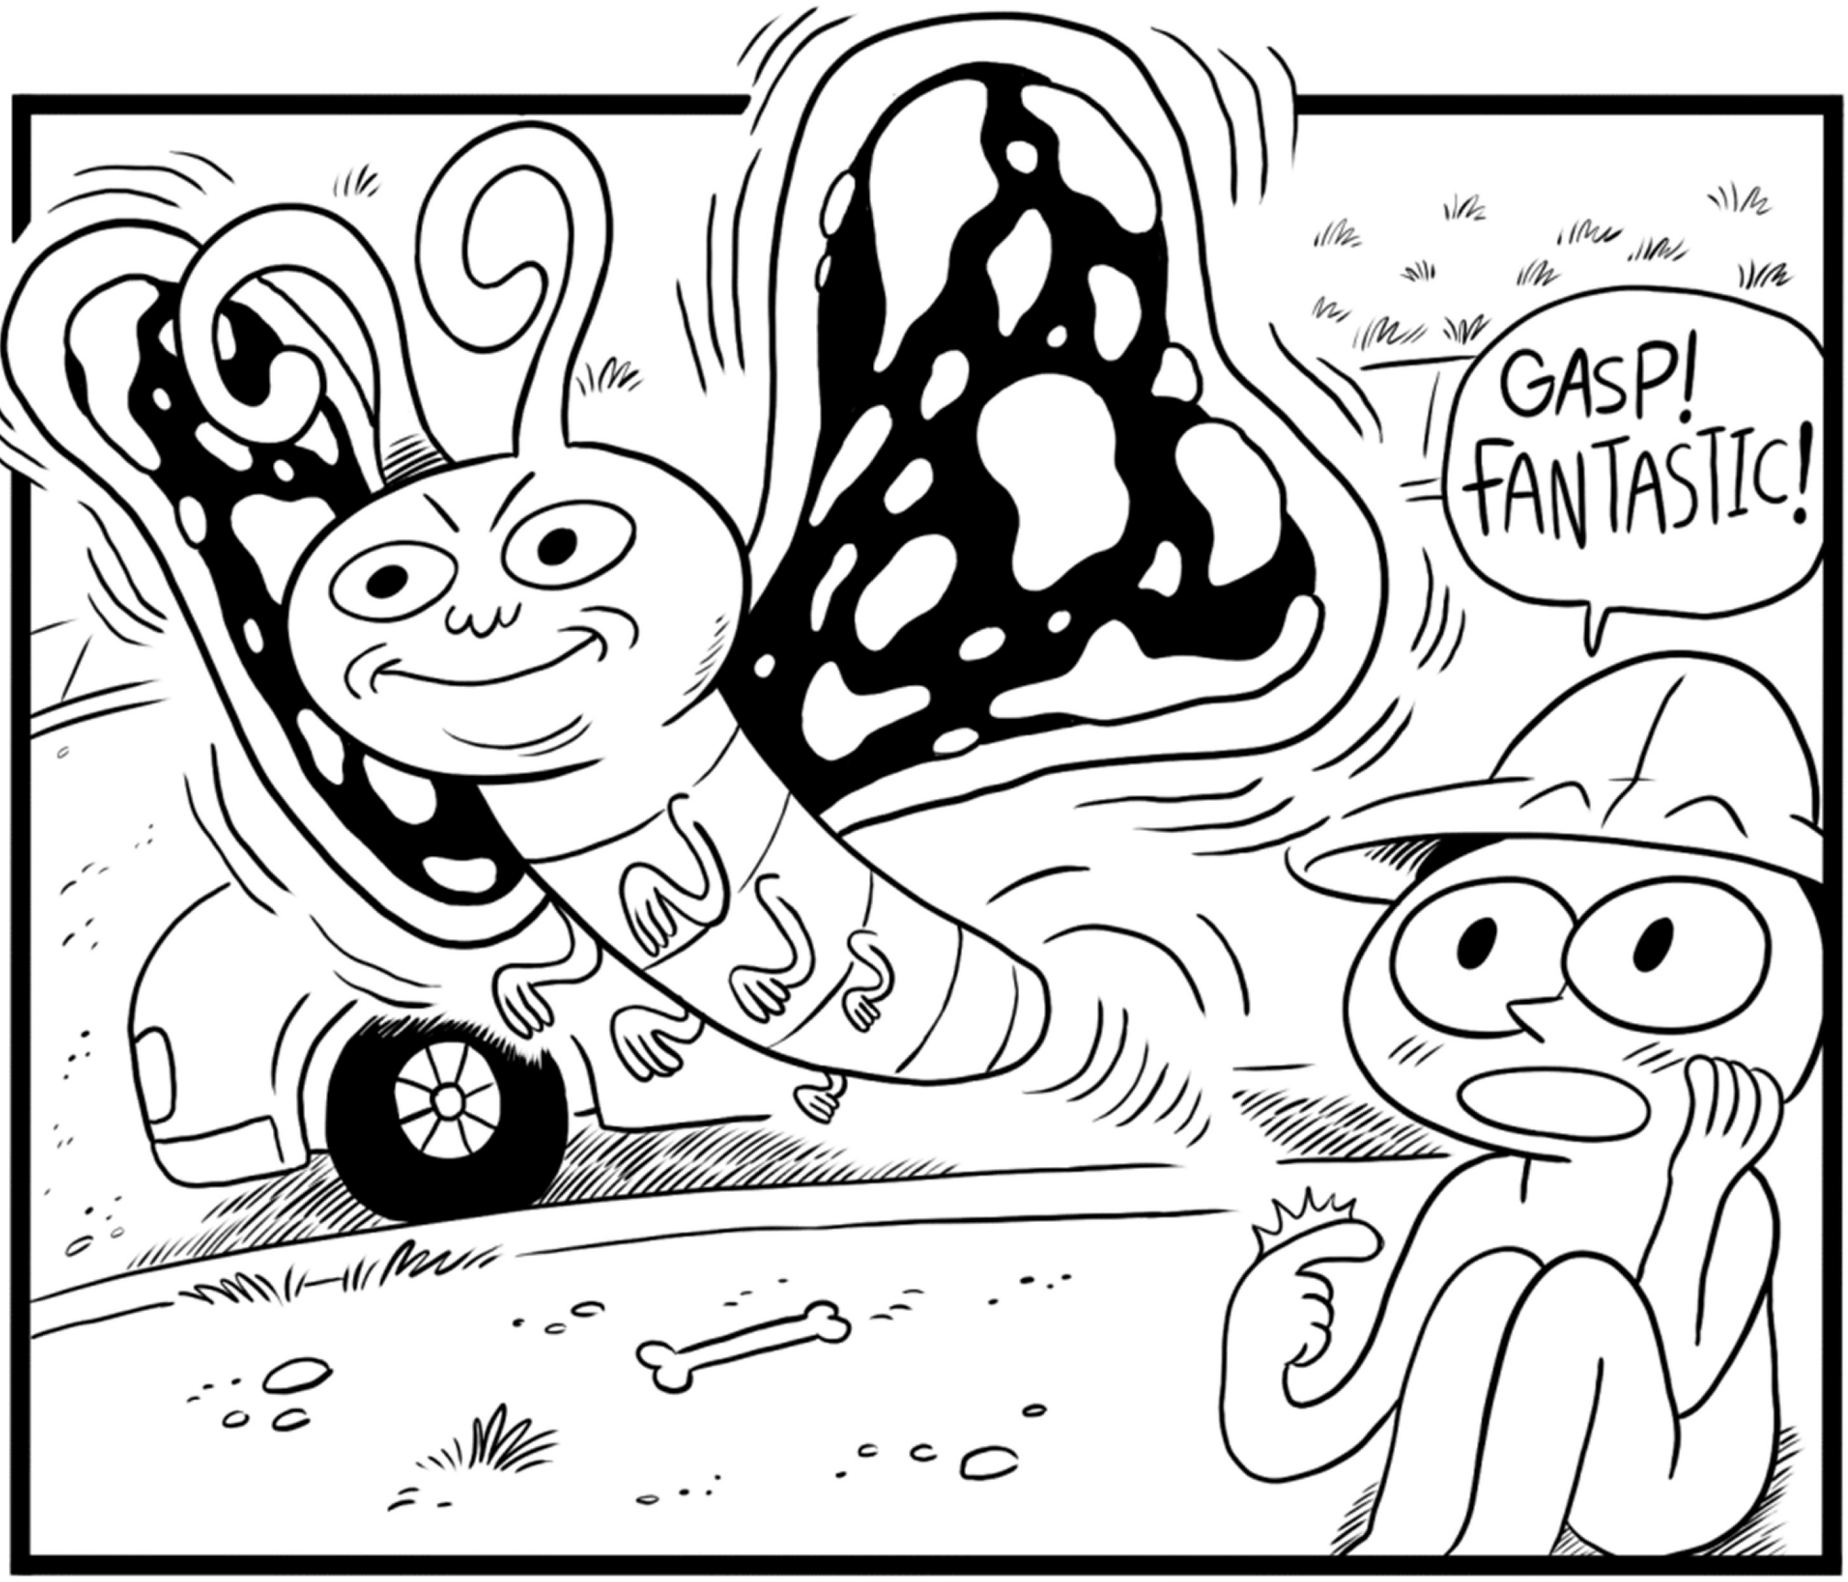
Now isn't this a nice surprise! I just discovered a very rare worm crawling around on the ground.

Such an enchanting appearance...

Amazingly, this insect will become even sexier once it undergoes its metamorphasis and evolves into it's adult form!

Wait I think the process is beginning! Let's watch as nature takes its course....

500 HOURS LATER



GASP! FANTASTIC!

What a wonderful display! unfortunately the adult worm only has a life span of ten seconds before it whithers up and dies.

It may seem sad, but we must remember this is the natural course of the world....

And finally we have everyone's favourite part of the show, where I try to capture the elusive

ROMBIT.

As you are all aware, I've been trying to get my mitts on this beast for years, yet it always manages to wiggle out of my grasp at the last moment!

I fucking hate this animal with every fibre of my body and I hope to one day throw it in prison where the tricky bastard belongs.

So today I've set up a big trap with the rombits favourite food as bait!

Surely this will capture the devious shitter!

AHHA! Here he is now!!!

Hey what's up my good man?

I've finally built the perfect trap to capture you!

Hmmm..... I dunno dude....

that trap looks a bit shitty to me.....

NO WAY! IT'S PERFECT!

Nah. TBH I don't even think this ol' hunk of junk works at all.

It works! Watch!!

SNAP!

OH NO!! You've foiled me again Rombit!

Aint I just the stinkiest li'l guy ever? NYeheheheheheh well, nature heads, that's all for today.

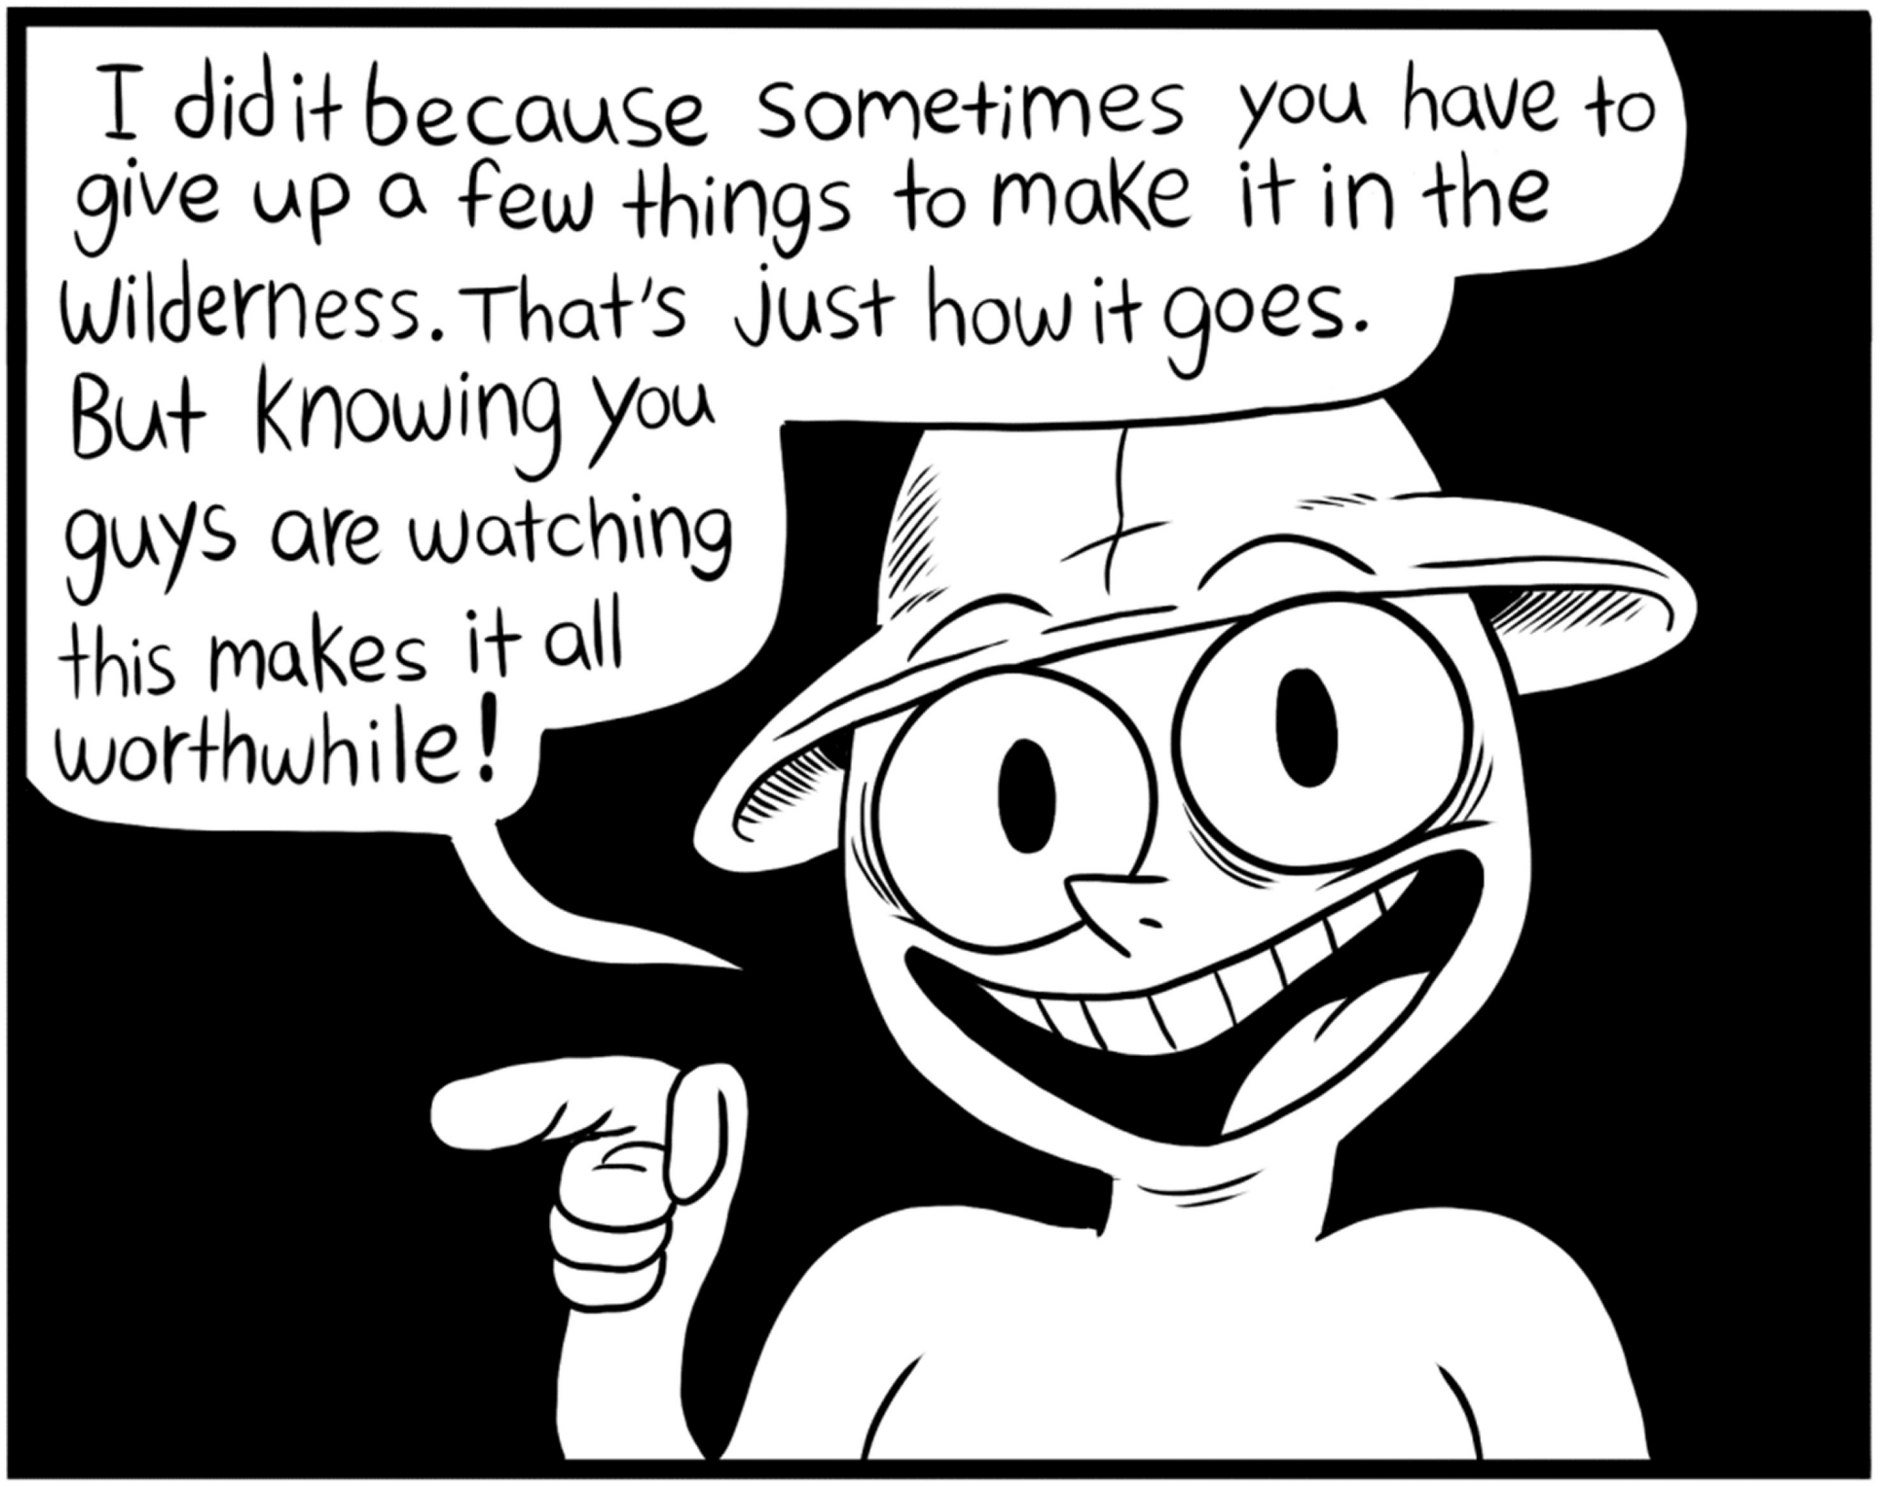
I hope you had a good time exploring the wilderness with me!

y'know I've given up a lot of stuff in the name of nature. I left my parents and my siblings so I could devote myself to it entirely.



I did it because sometimes you have to give up a few things to make it in the wilderness. That's just how it goes.
But knowing you guys are watching this makes it all worthwhile!

I need you to keep tuning in so I can keep forgetting and YOU can improve your mind with cool nature knowledge!

Thank you and goodnight!

Well that's just swell!

Hmmmm let's seeeee....

Eh? See? Tree? Tree. Yeah

Pat Pat

Let's see what this guy has to offer

Yep. Trees always have some good stuff in 'em!

Flappers, jumpers, you name it!

AHA! There we go!

It's a wild nuthead hole!

Nutheads usually set up base inside trees, where they build elaborate homes!

Cool table! This guy obviously has a decent expendable income

I wonder what he's reading....

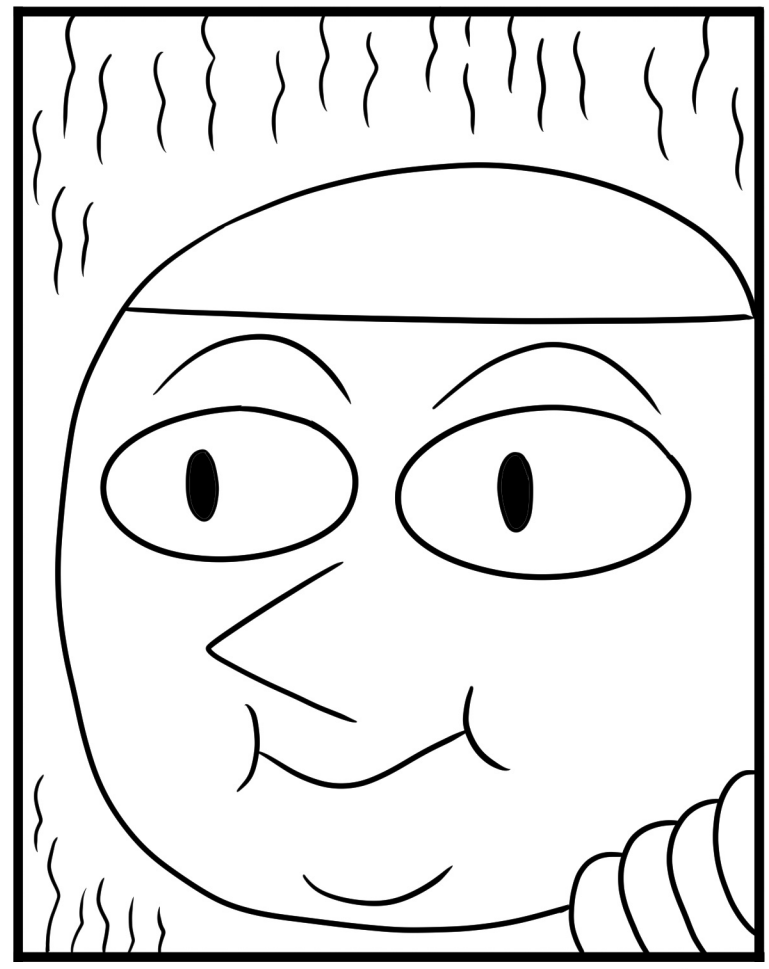
A PROMISED LAND

Please stop looking into my home.

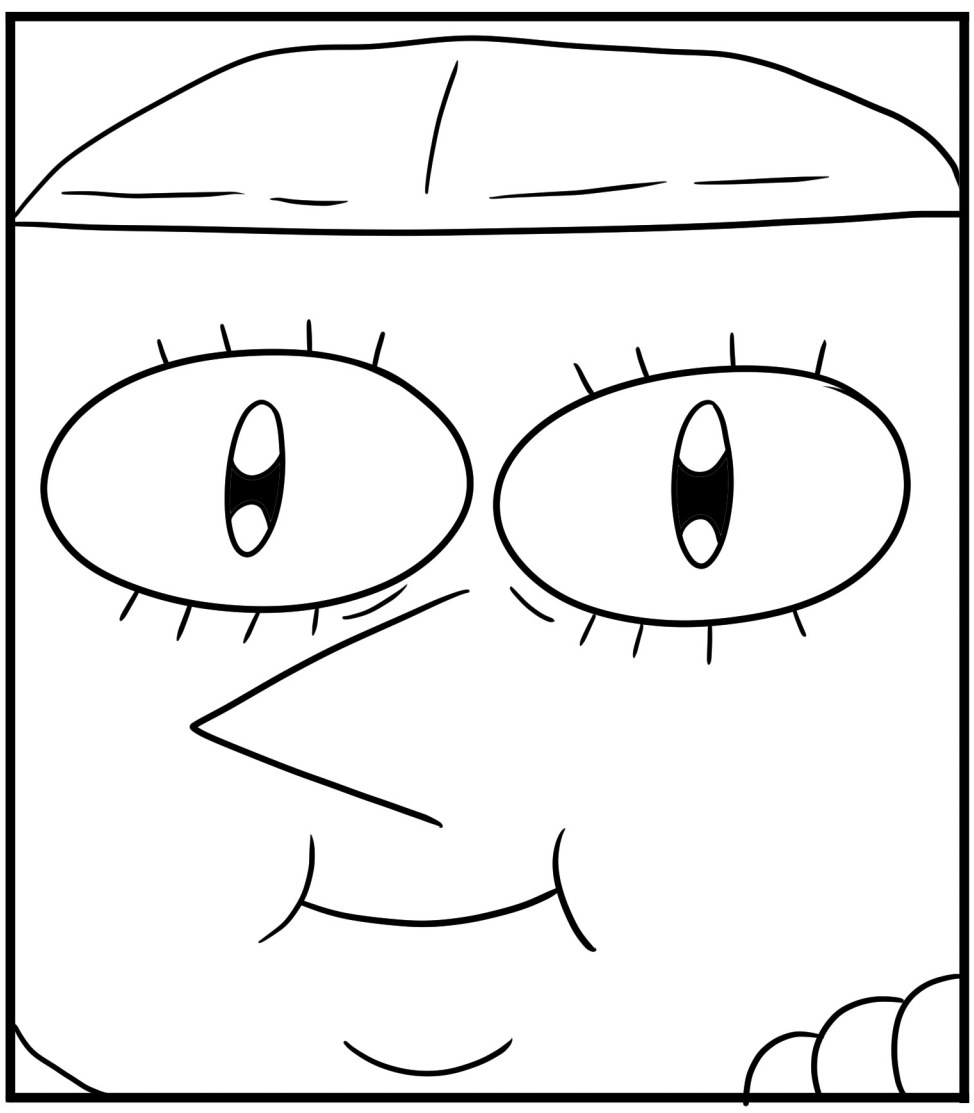
A PROMISED LAND

Oh! Sorry. Hey, do you want to be on my show?

Uhh what do you mean? Are you filming this?



Is it like...a podcast?



Yeah I gotta go now!
Goodbye!

Interesting stuff! It's not everyday you see something like that.

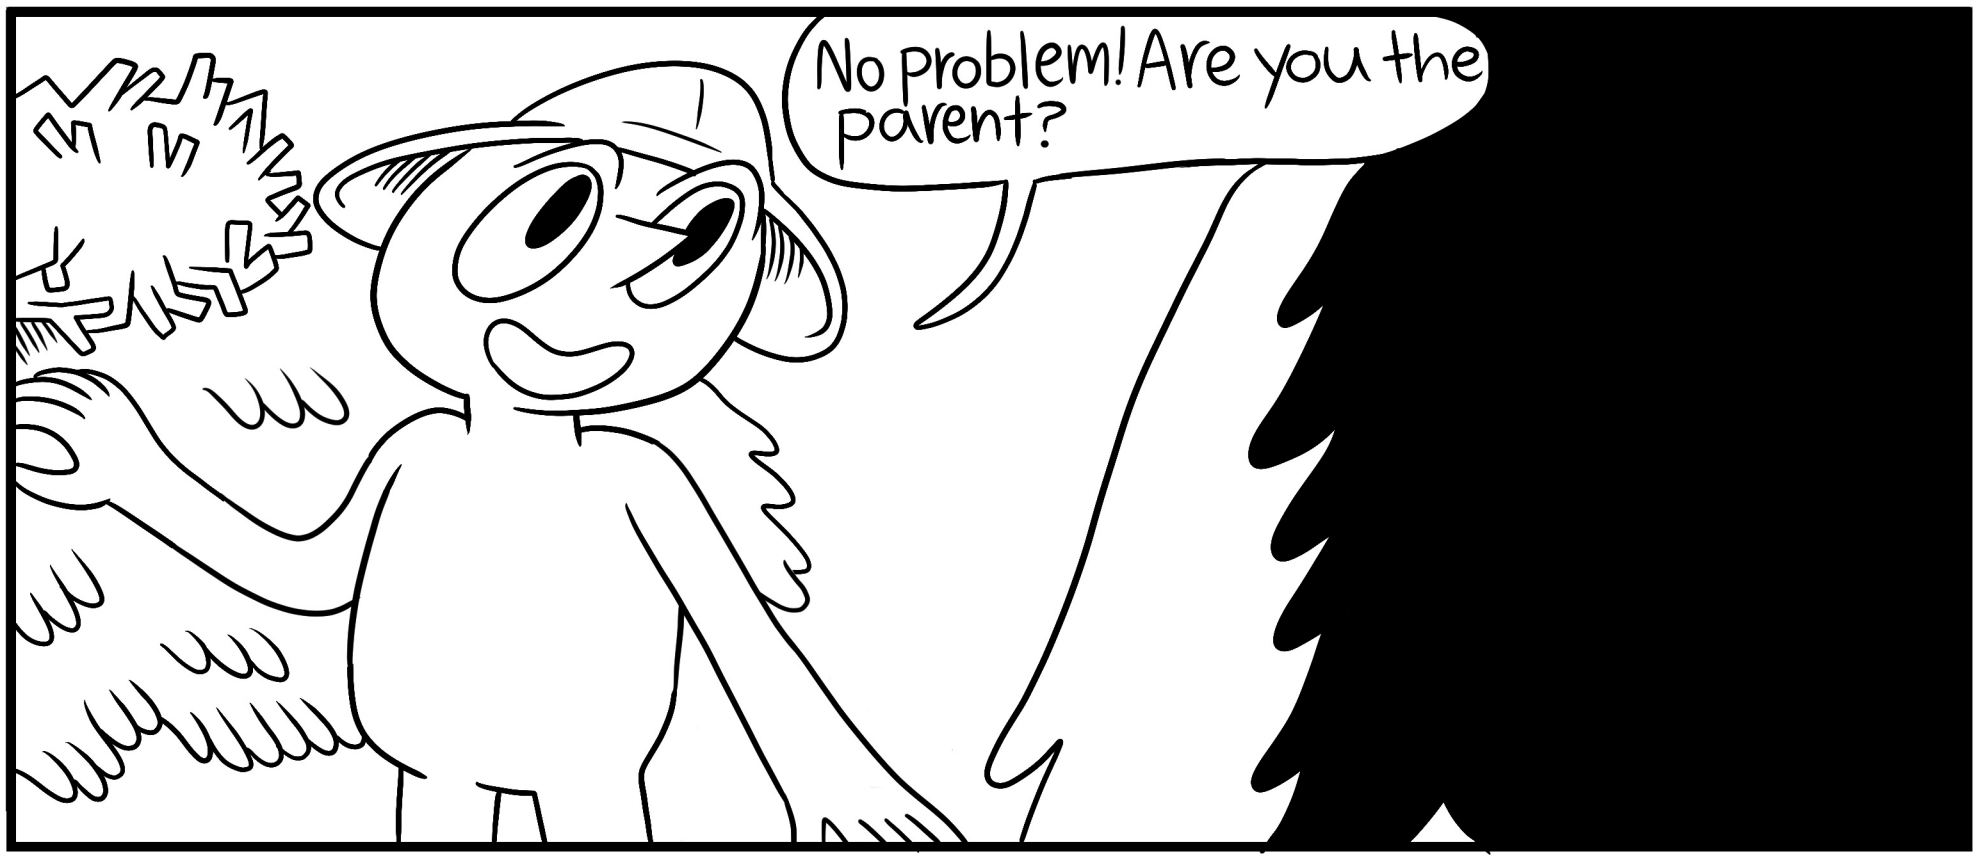
What a rare and beautiful sight!
It's very hard to see them at this age because flapper nests are built in high up places most creatures can't reach.
Before their feathers grow in flappers are very vulnerable and completely reliant on their parents for food.
Geez I'm tearing up here! SNIFFF!
They're just... so cute!
Haha! you're too kind



No problem! Are you the parent?

Ha ha, yep, that's me! The name's Beth WOW! I hope this isn't too forward, but you're beautiful! I've never seen a flapper as big as you!

Aw shucks!

Hey, you're not trying to eat my babies right?

Oh no! I was just admiring them! I'm a nature lover!

Oh ok. That's cool

Say, uh, do you want to be interviewed for my show?

ummmm....sure!

You mind if we fly while we do this? I gotta get some worms for my kids.

Of course! That sounds wonderful!

Make sure to hold on tight! I don't want you slipping off!

Bye bye babies!

Hey that's my old neighborhood!

Cool!

HI GUYS!!!

So tell me about yourself Beth! What do you do for a living?

Well, usually I spend most of the day getting food for my babies or picking up sticks to fix the nest

Cool cool... so you're a single parent!

Oh yeah, I was in a relationship for a while, but it didn't work out. He was gross.

I'm doing better now.

This looks like a pretty good worm spot!

Let's pick out a couple of these bad boys

Ooh! What an interesting species!

Hello there! Would any of you like to be interviewed for my nature show?

Do you have it all lined up?

yep!

Okay, fire away then!

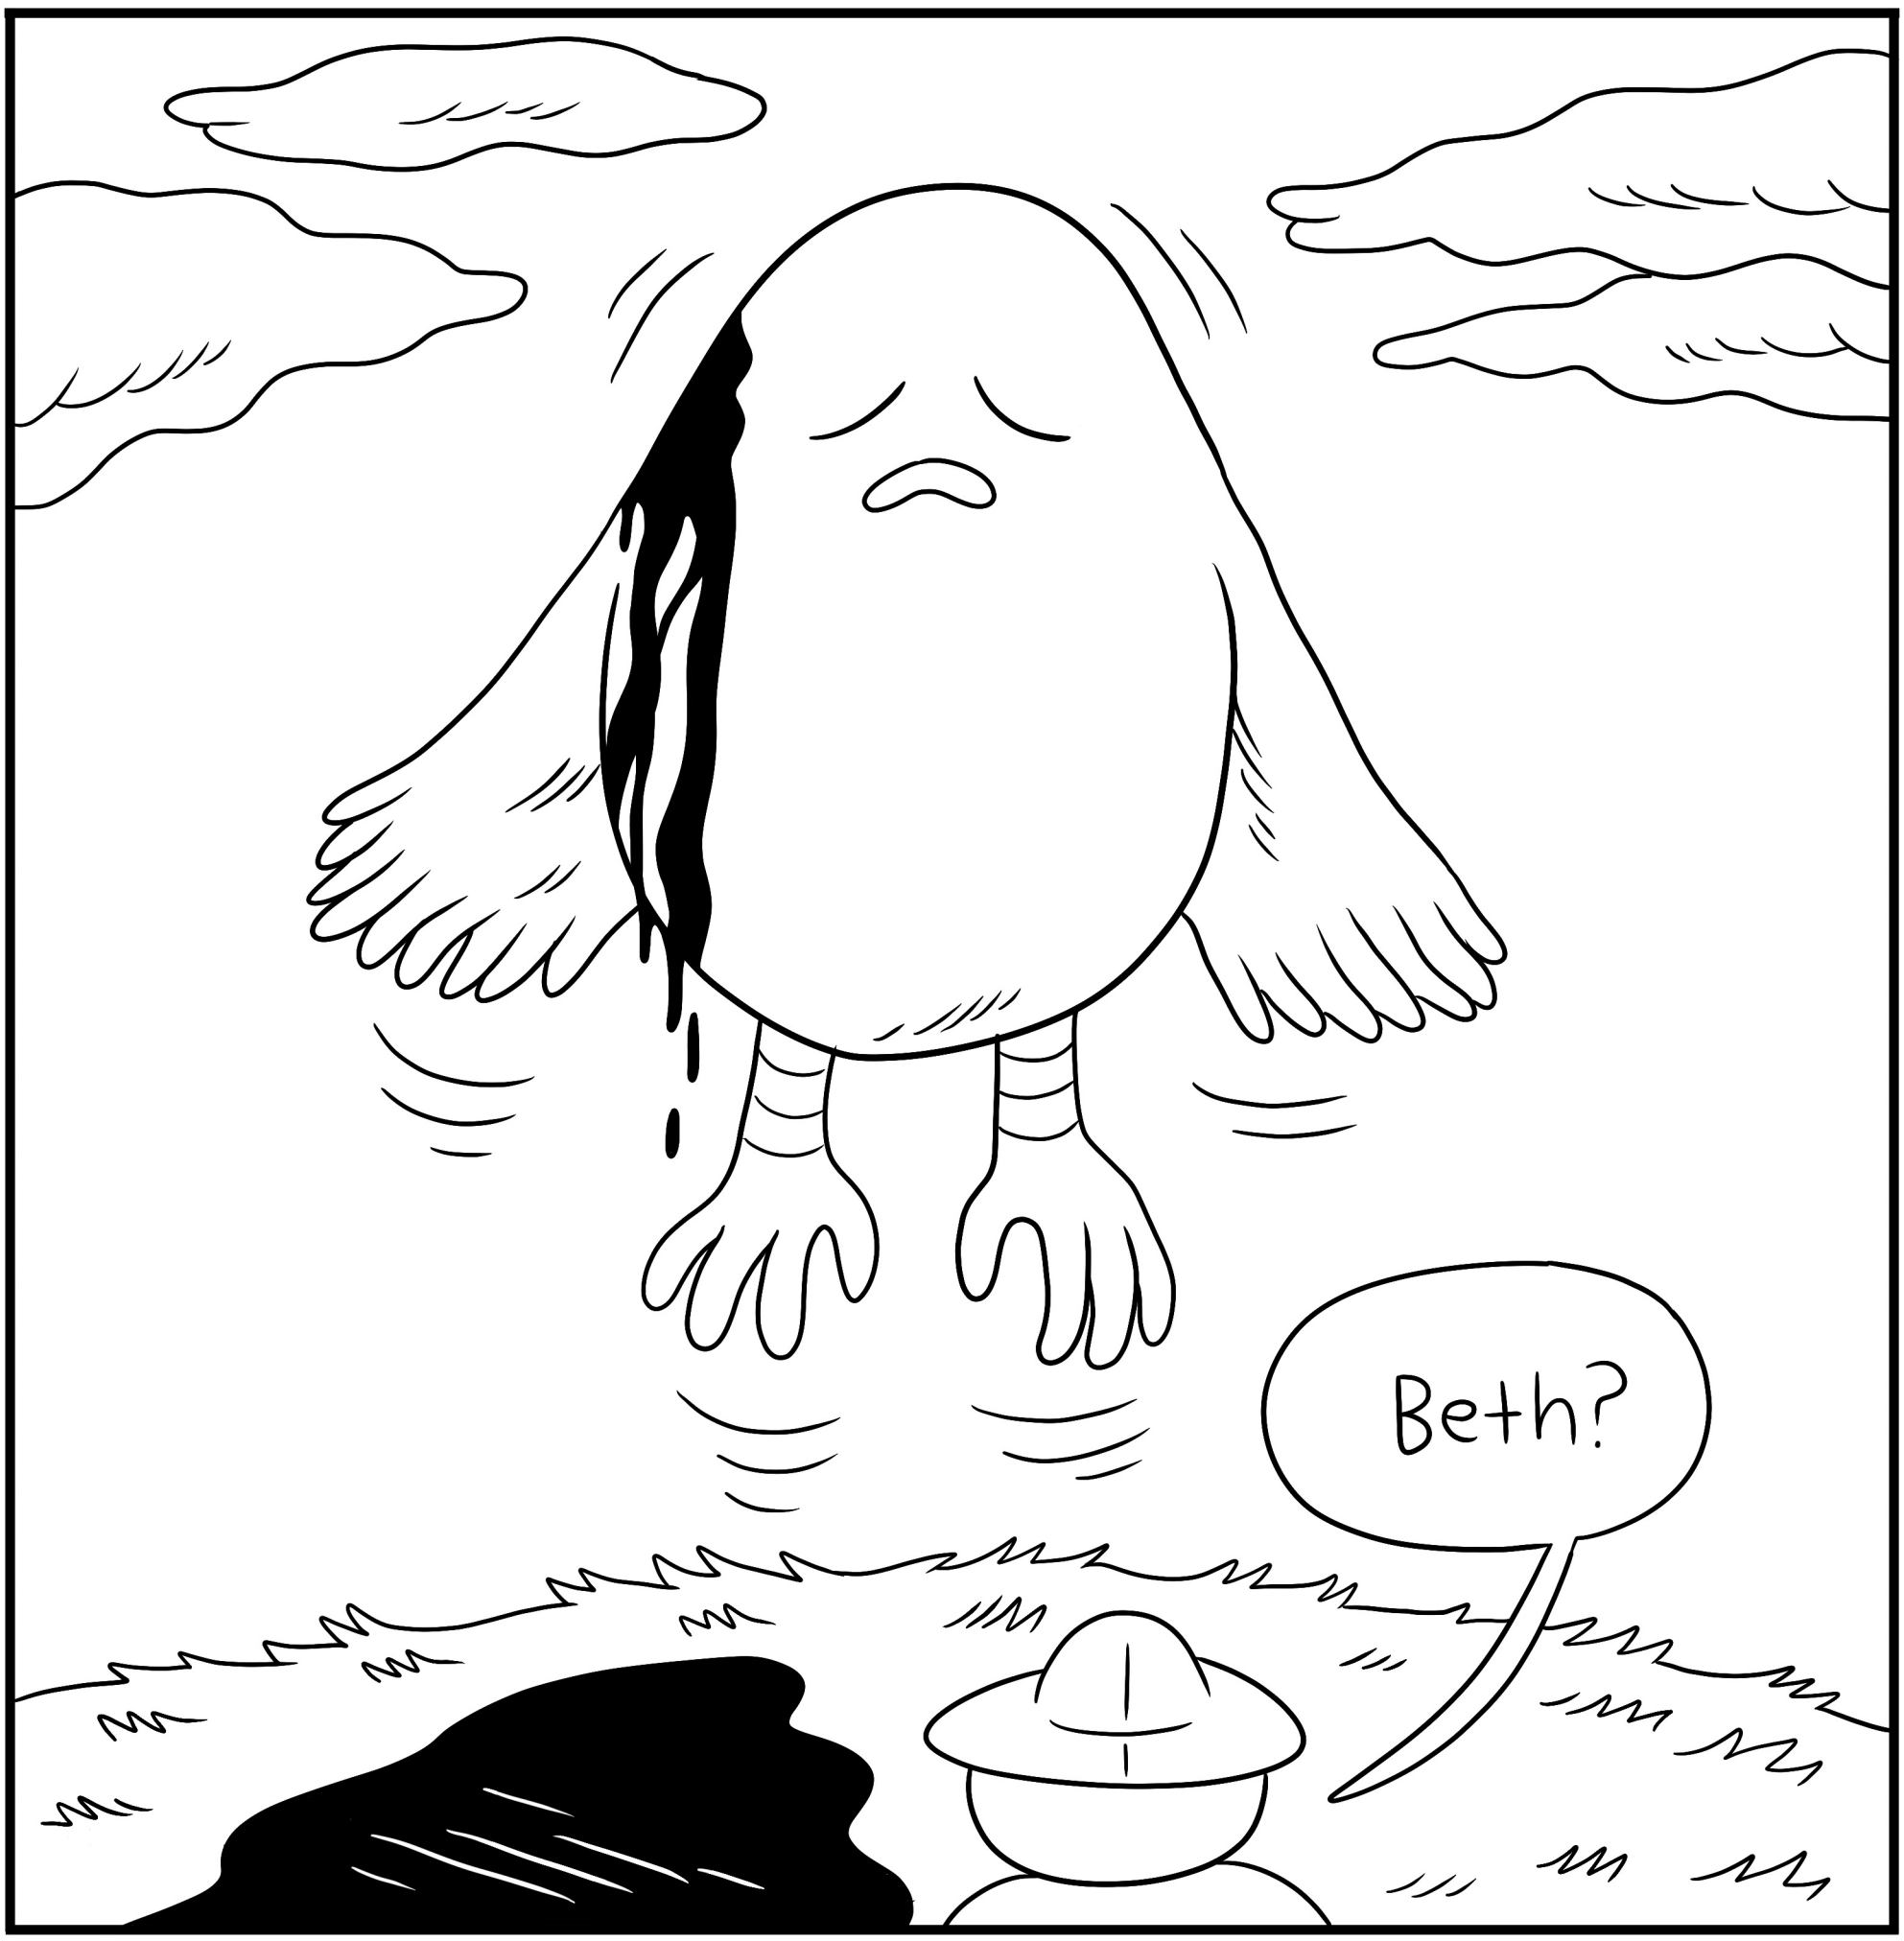
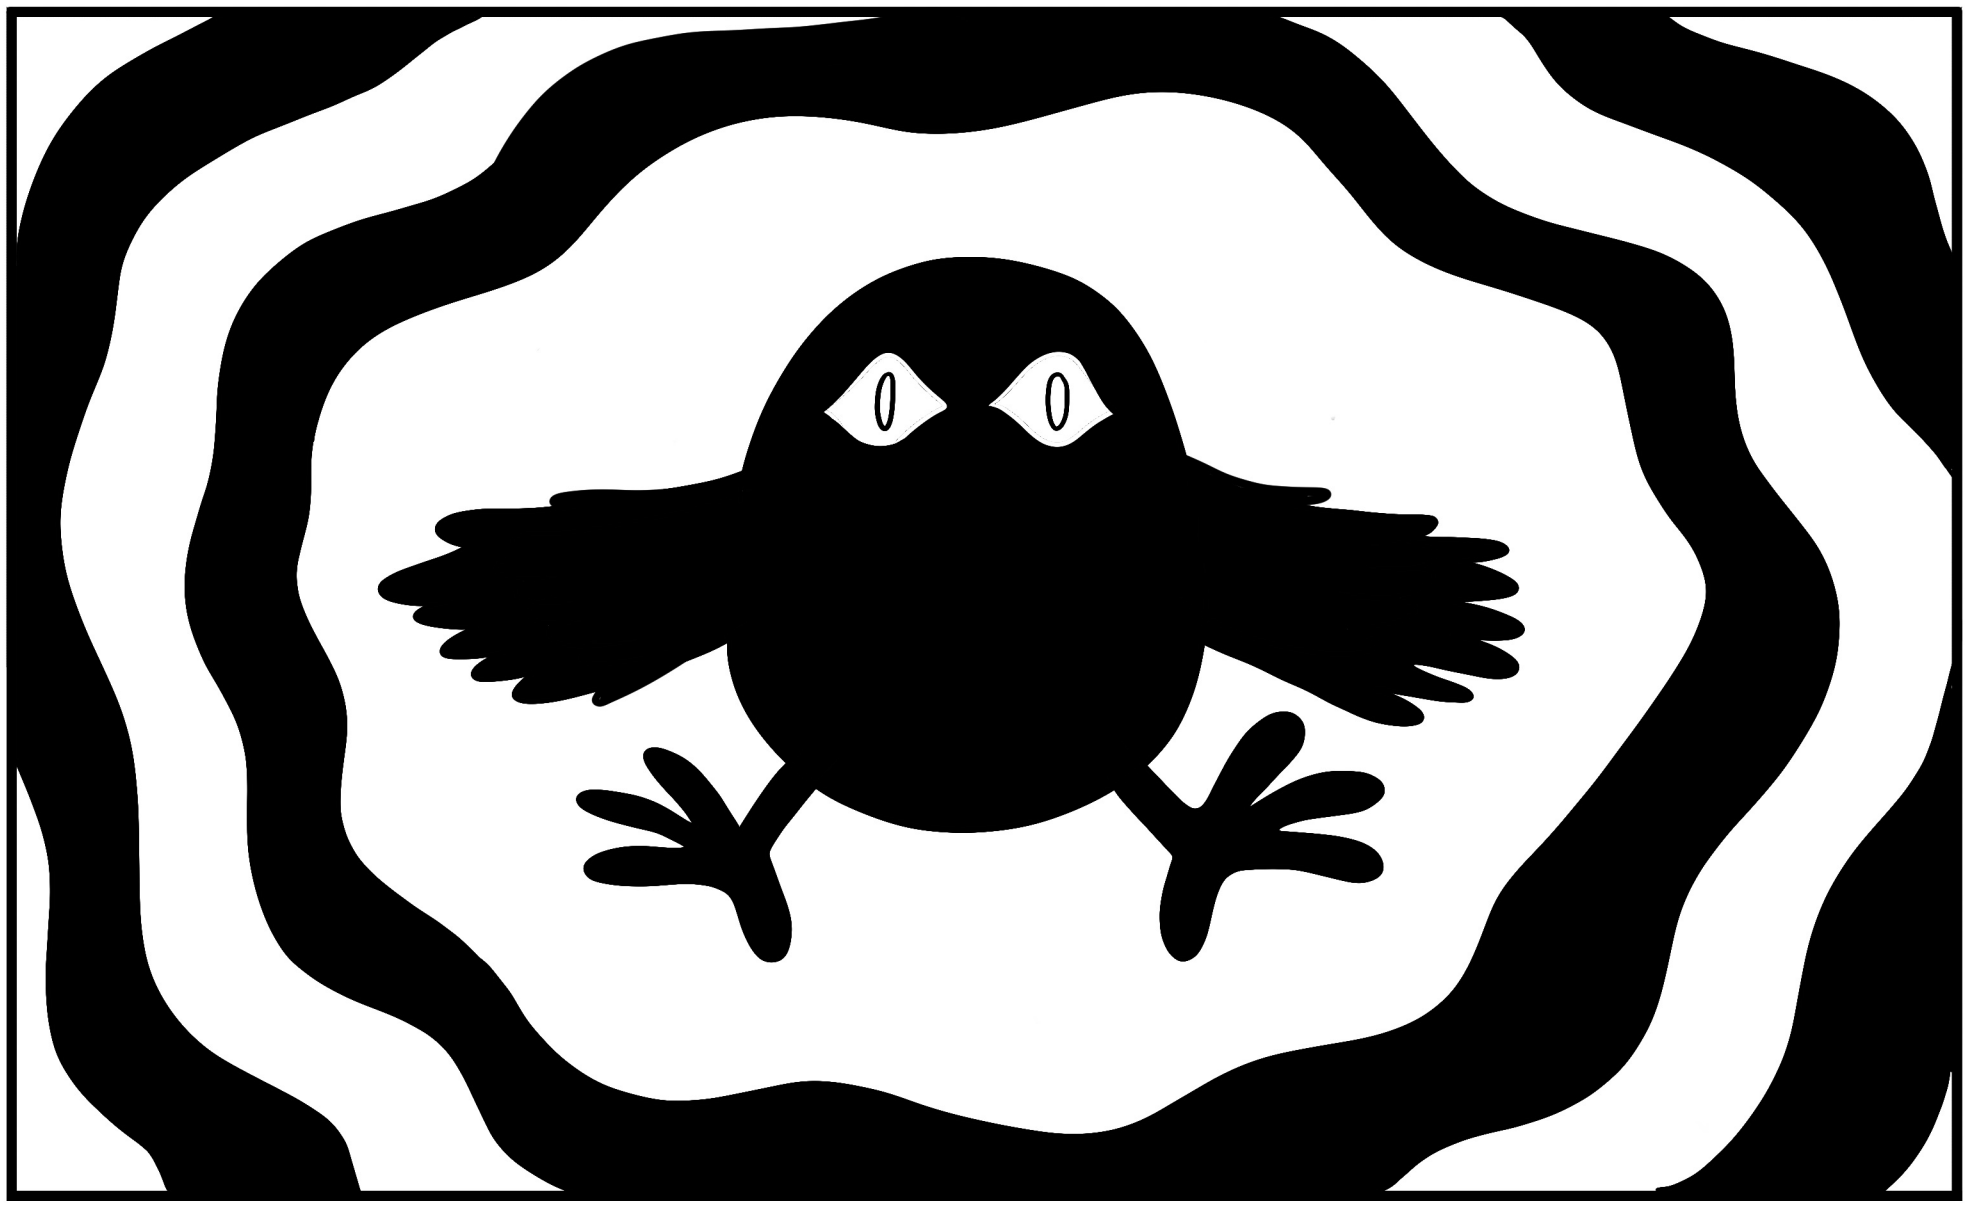
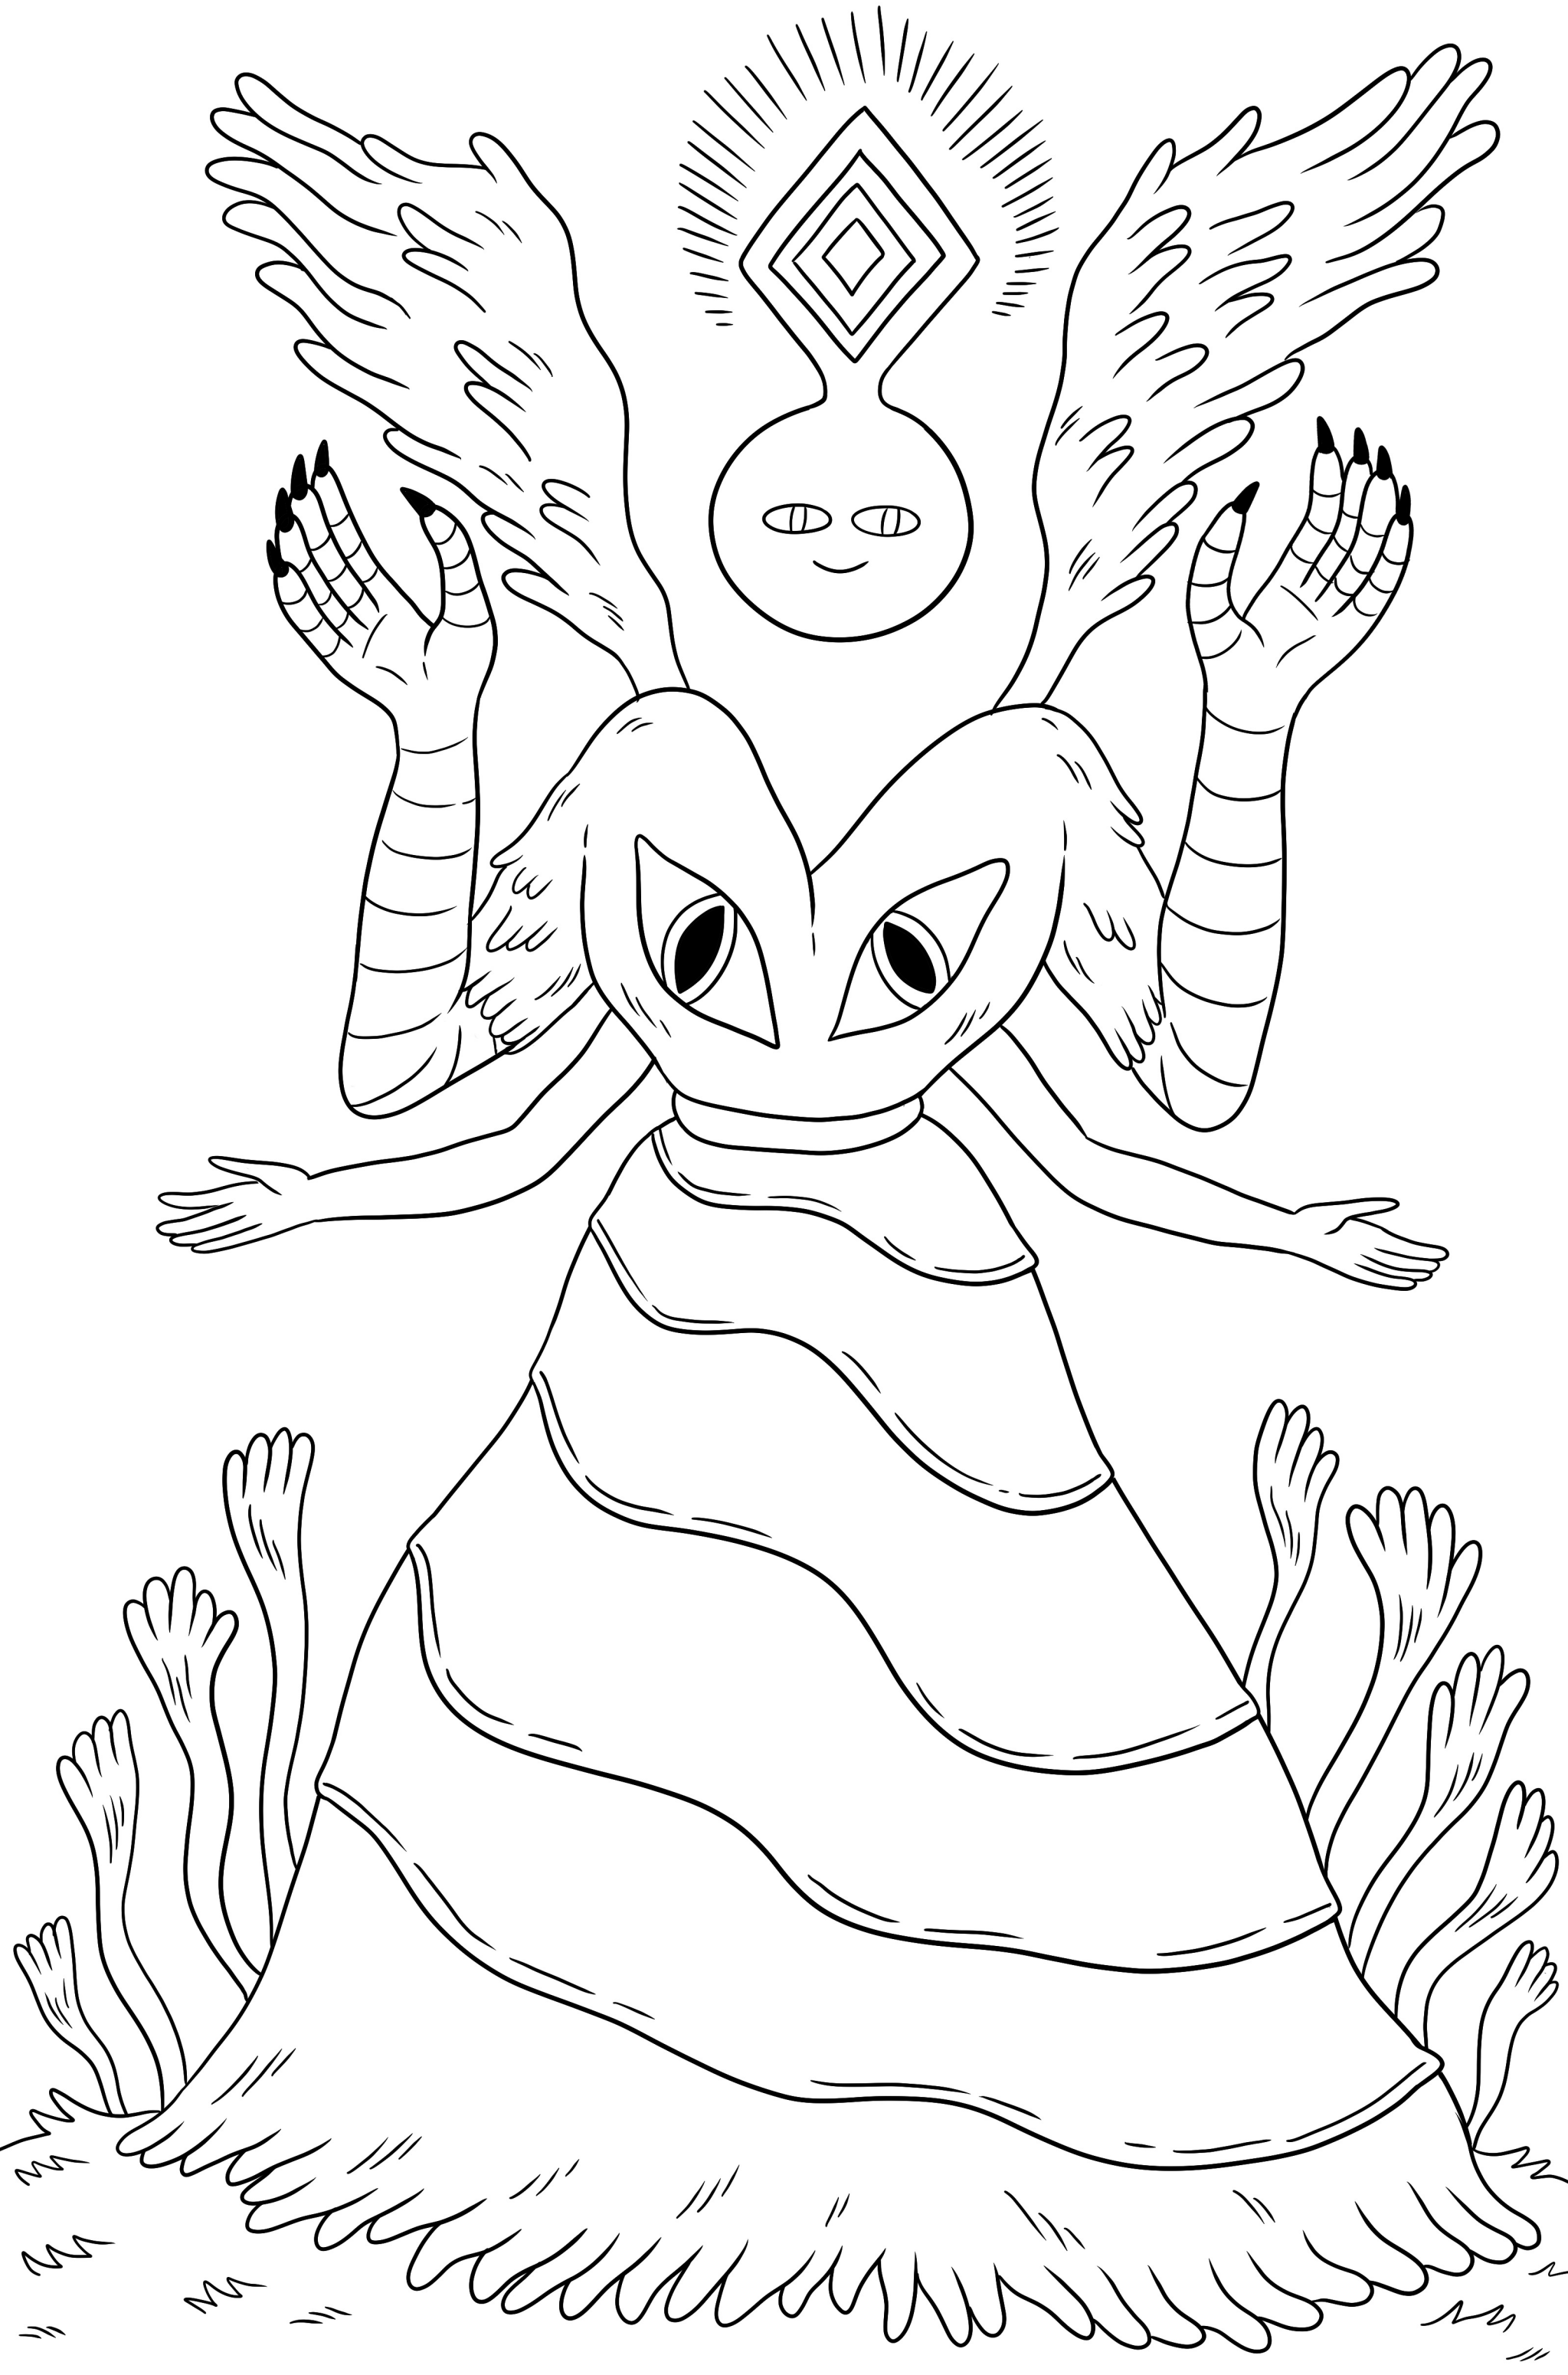
What the...



Beth?



WOOOOOOSSHH



Hello, Tom Hickey

B-Beth? Is that you?! How?!?

Beth was my name. NOW I have become something else.

Please, dear Tom, come closer, and I will explain...

umm okay

There. That's better isn't it?

You see, once my material form was destroyed, my life essence untethered itself from this reality.

I am one of the five spirits of the outter realm, grandchild of Zeno, sister of Fynen. It is my duty to balance the three planes of Hearth.

My jealous father, envious of my power, trapped me here. All memories of my true existence were thus hidden to myself.

Oh okay

That makes sense I guess.

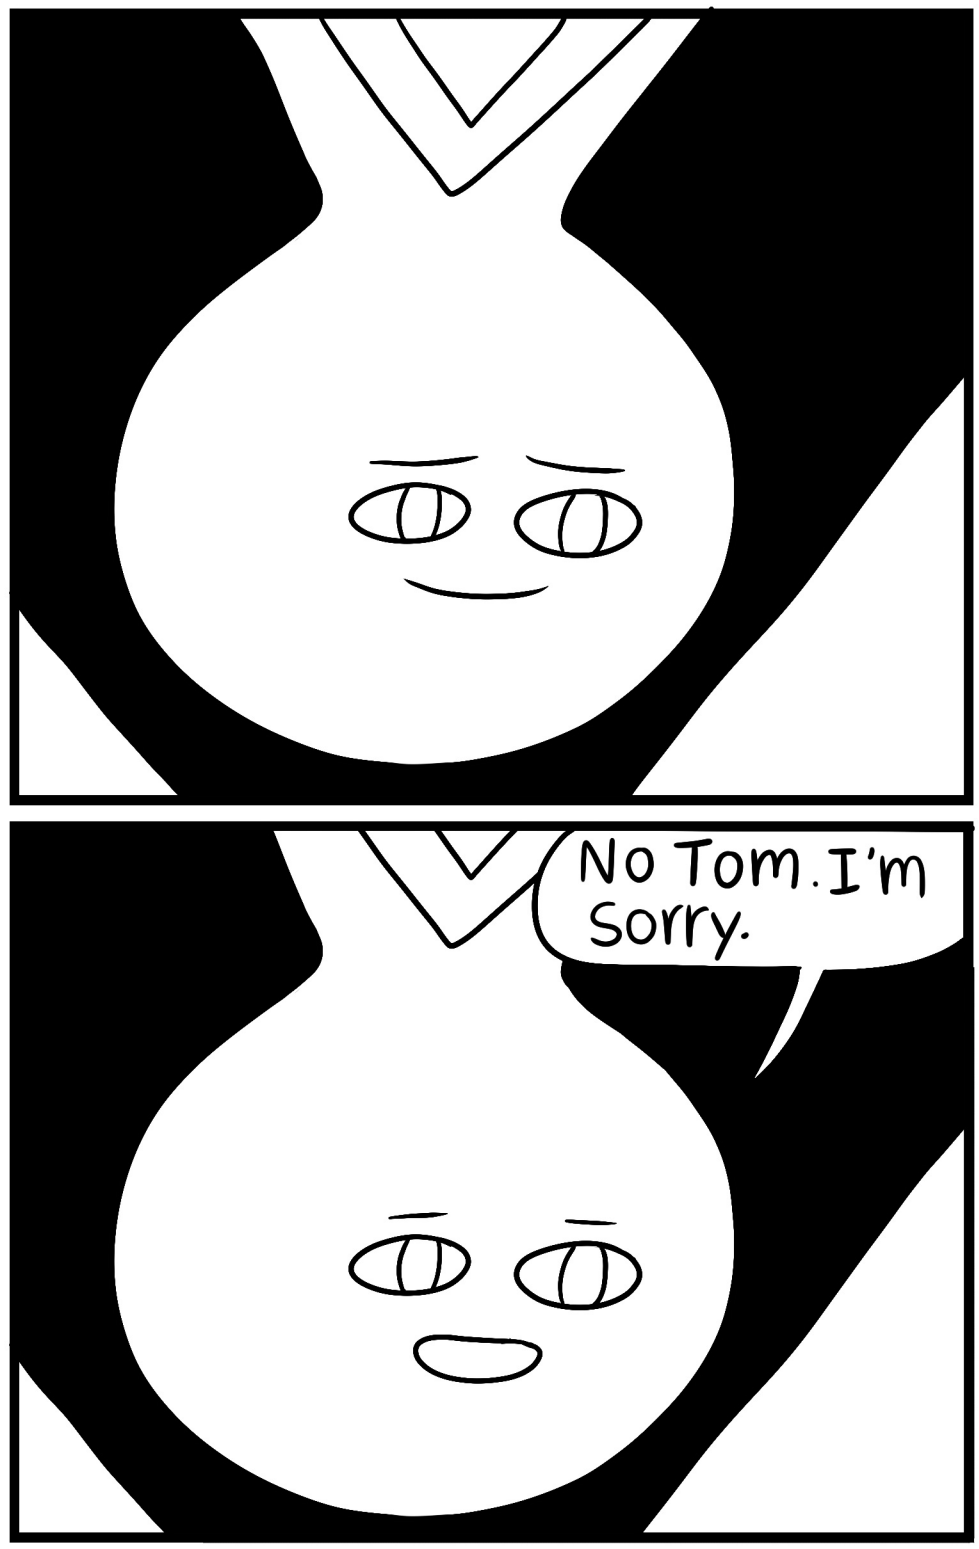
Are you... happier like this?

Yes, I believe I am.

Now, dear Tom, I present you with two choices.

For the kindness you've directed at me, I offer a seat at the table of unreality

Join me and see the infinite scope of an eternally shifting supercosmos. A world beyond heartbreak and ridicule.



Now the second choice: I cannot take my children to the outter realm. My father would destroy them due to the potential power they possess. I humbly request that you care for them in my absence, so they can grow up safely.

Each choice is optional however. There is no shame in refusing either.

Well yeah, of course I'll look after your kids! I love taking care of baby animals!

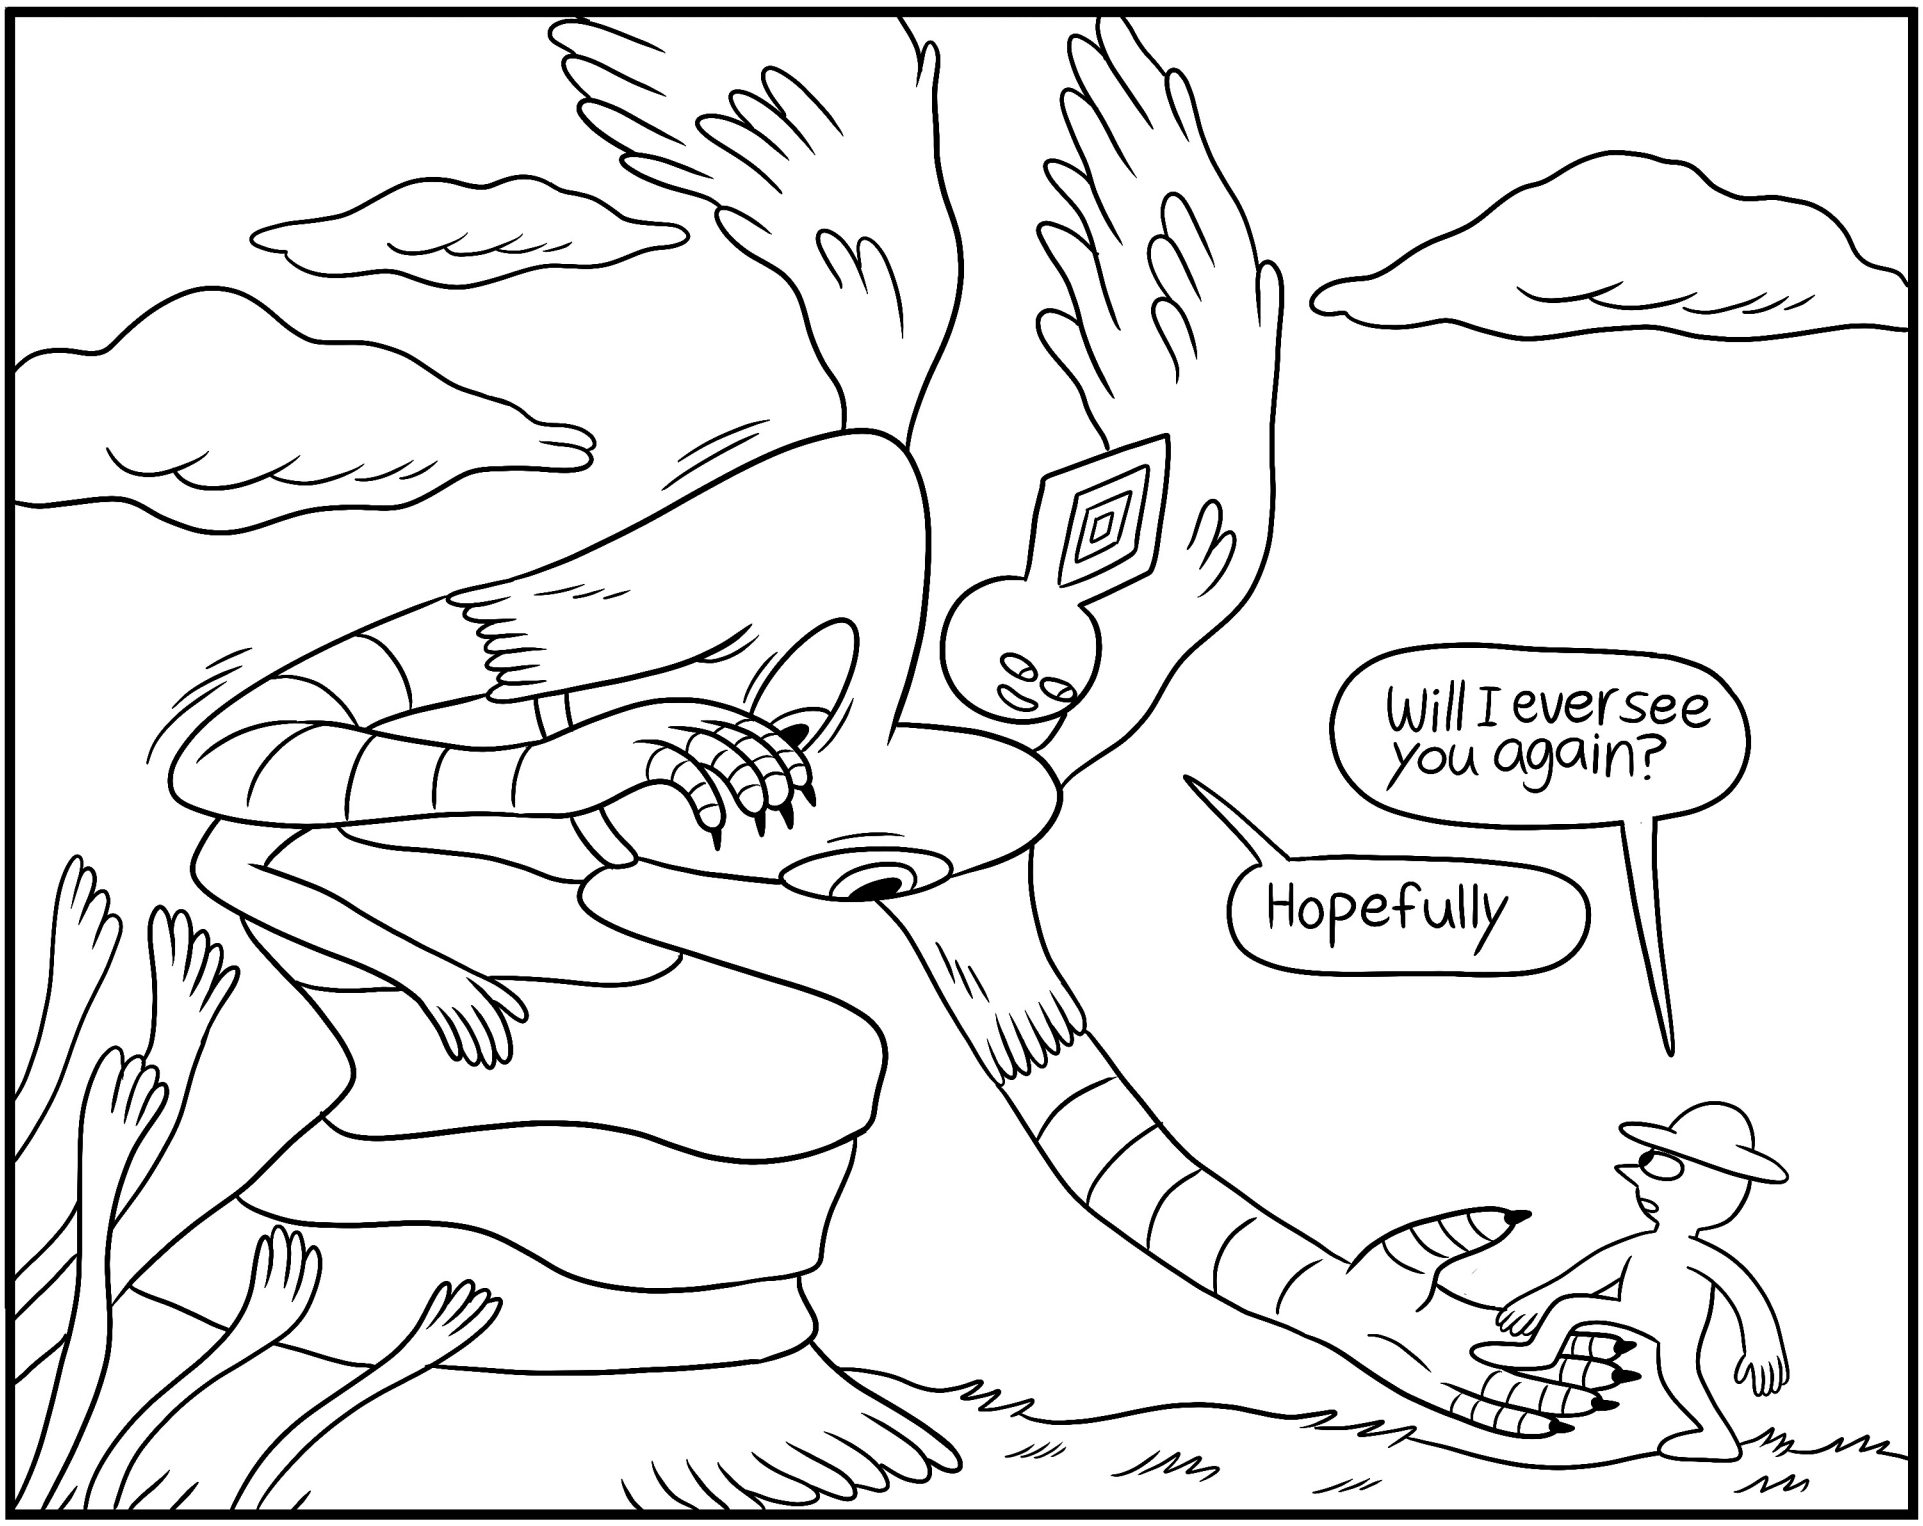
Are you sure? You can take some time to think it over....

Naw I'm good!

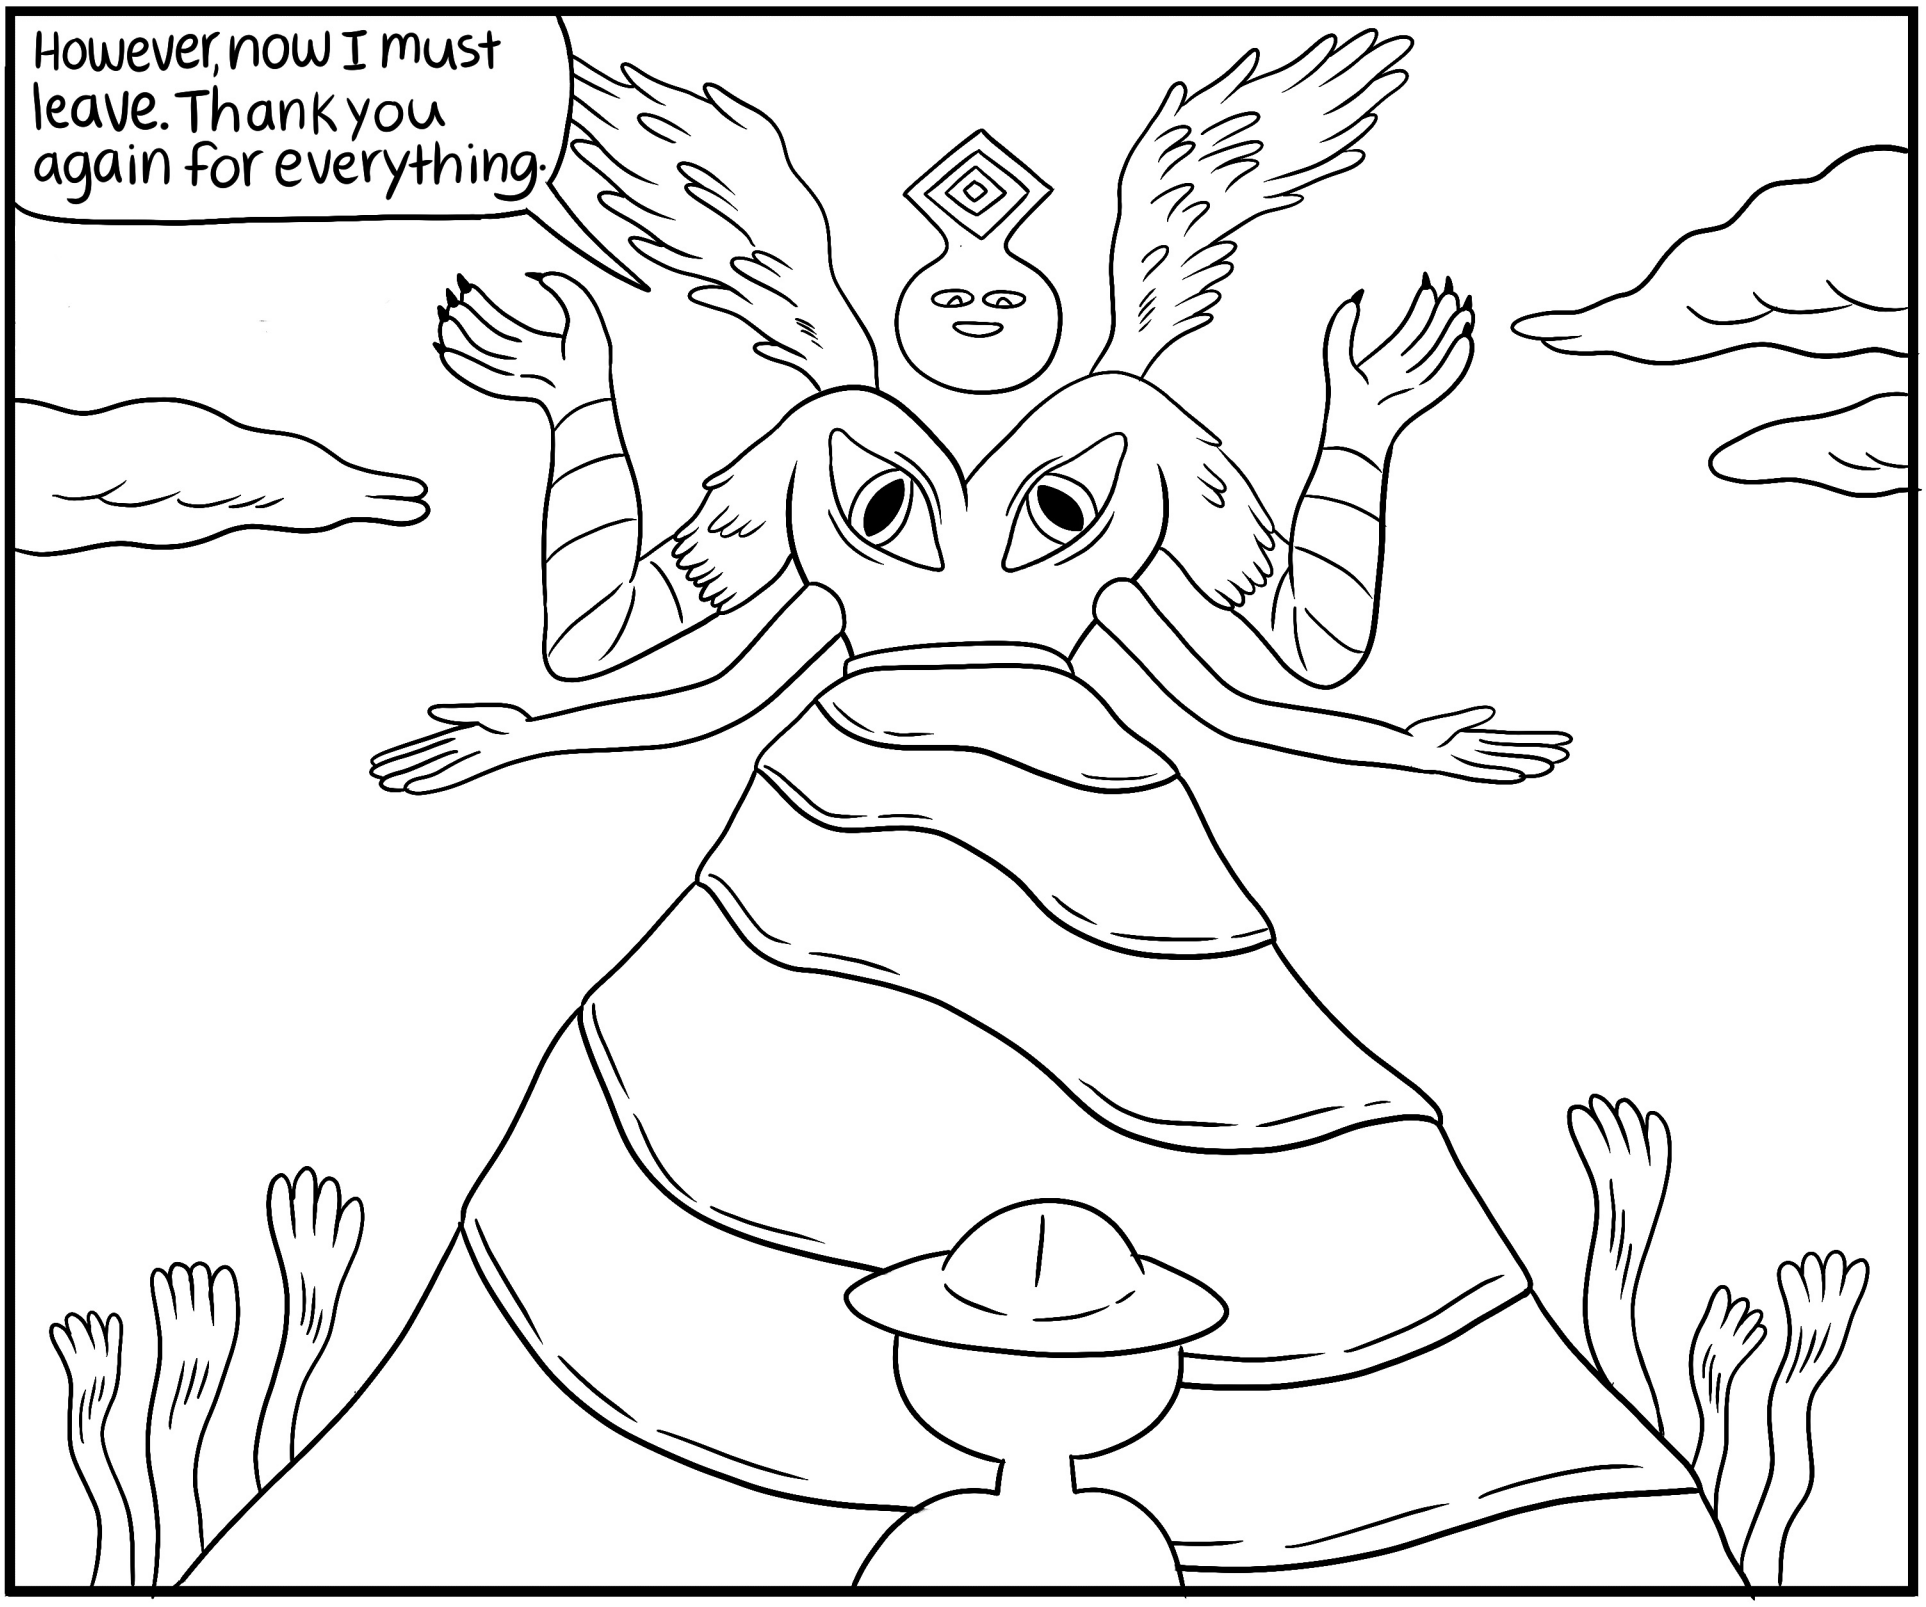
Ha ha

Ha ha ha! of course. Why'd I expect otherwise!

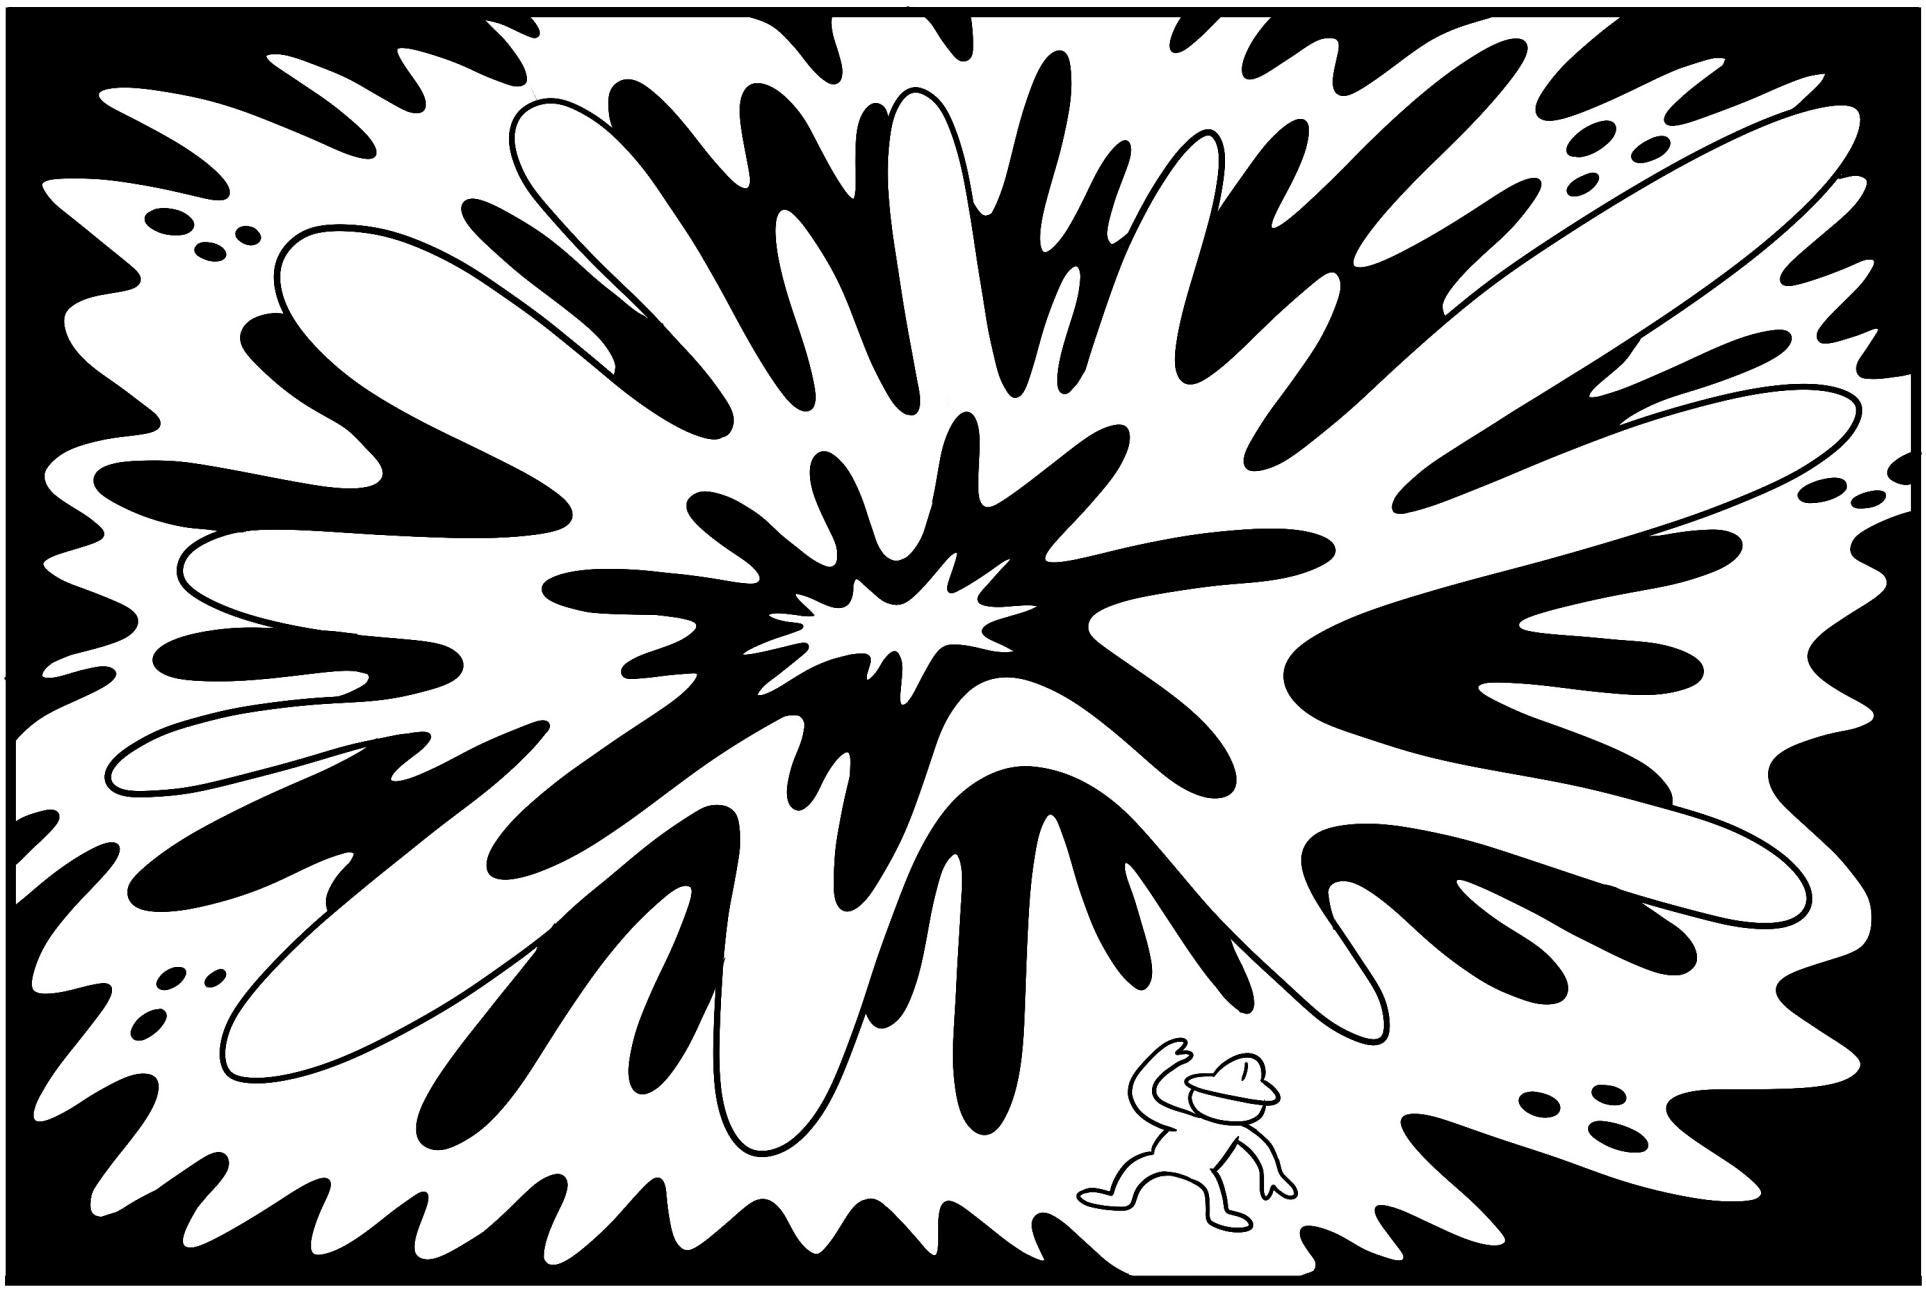
Oh, sweet Tom, lover of all living things, if only all of us could see the world through your kind eyes.

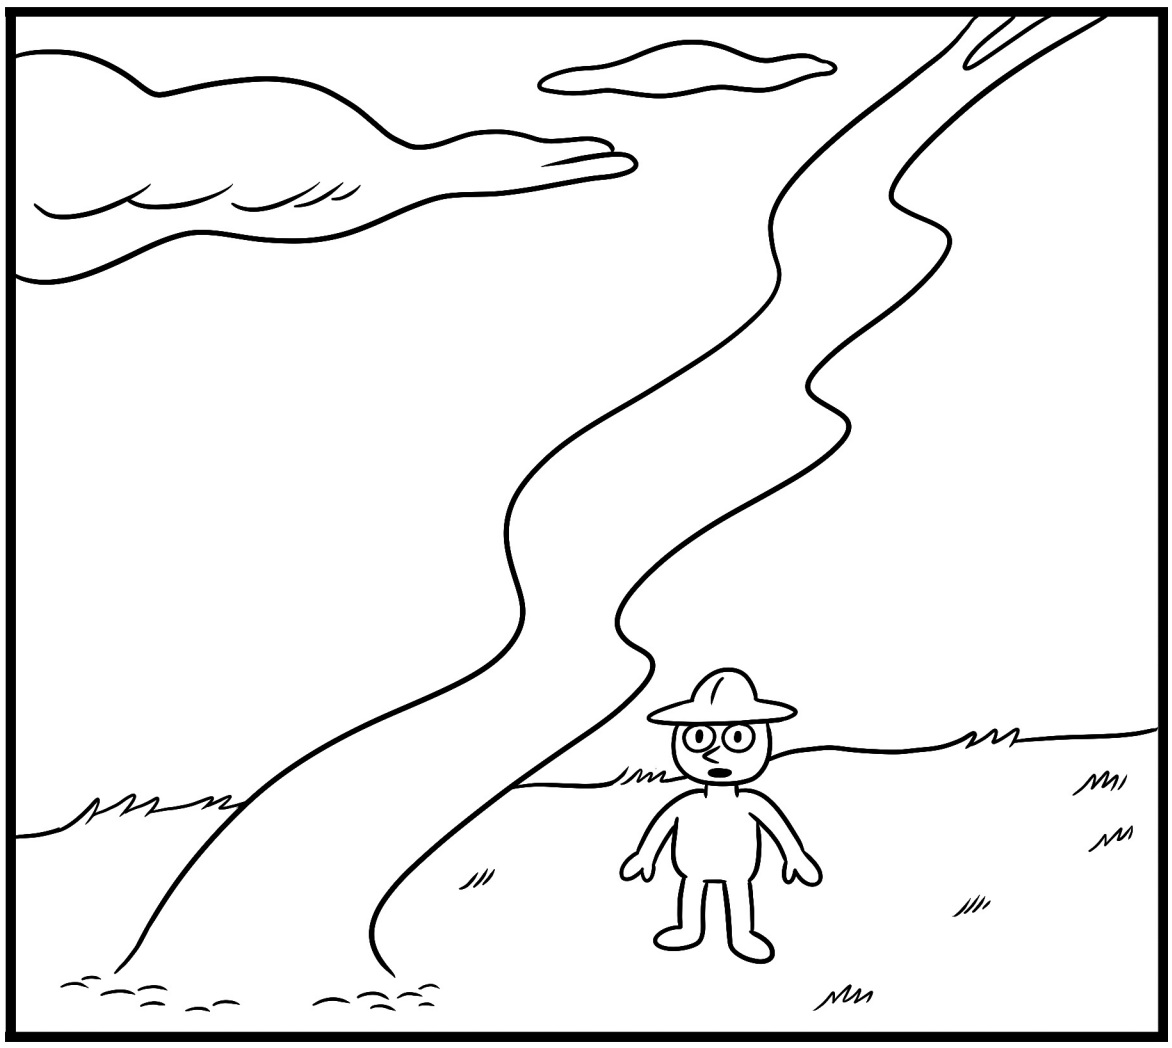


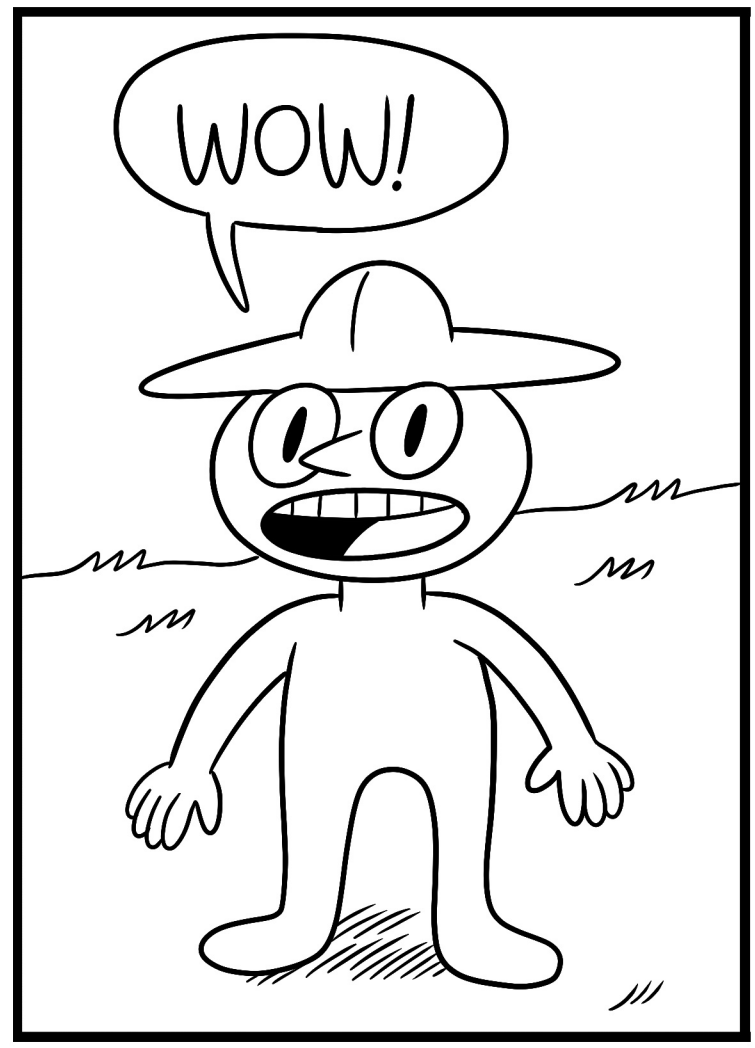
Will I ever see you again?
Hopefully



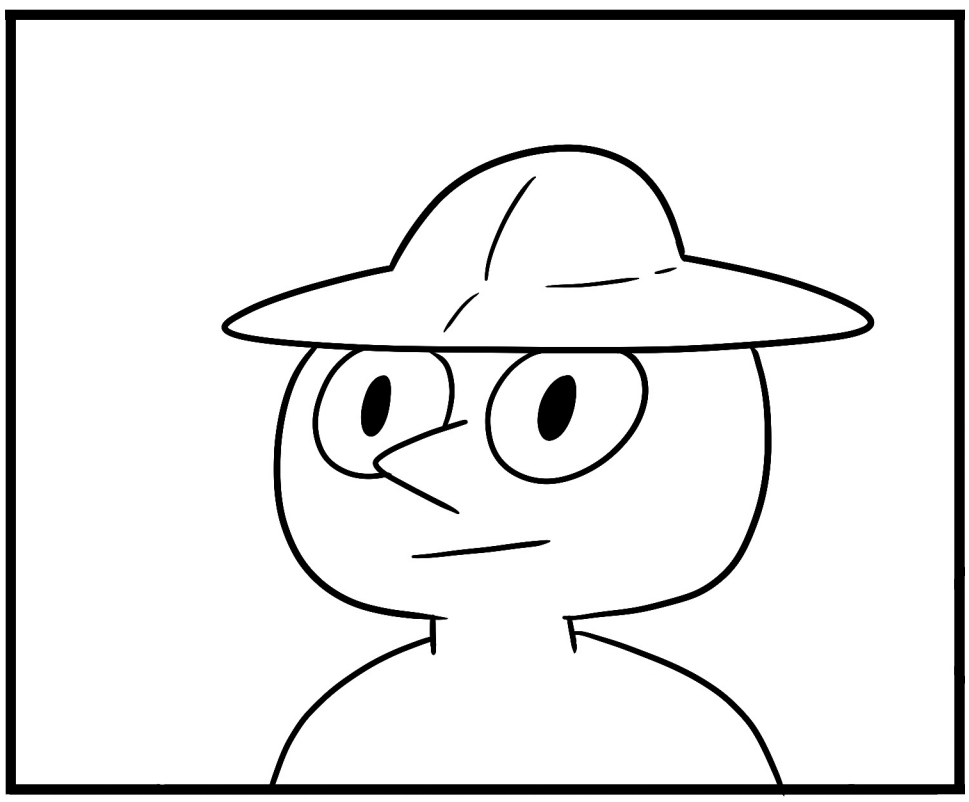
However, now I must leave. Thank you again for everything.

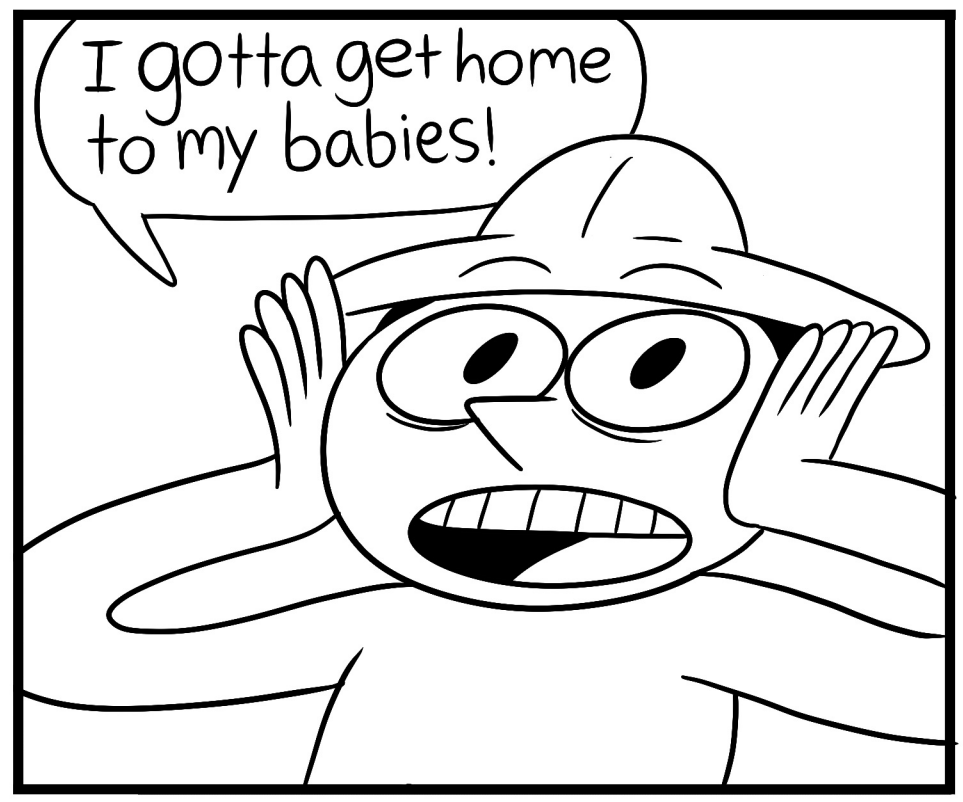




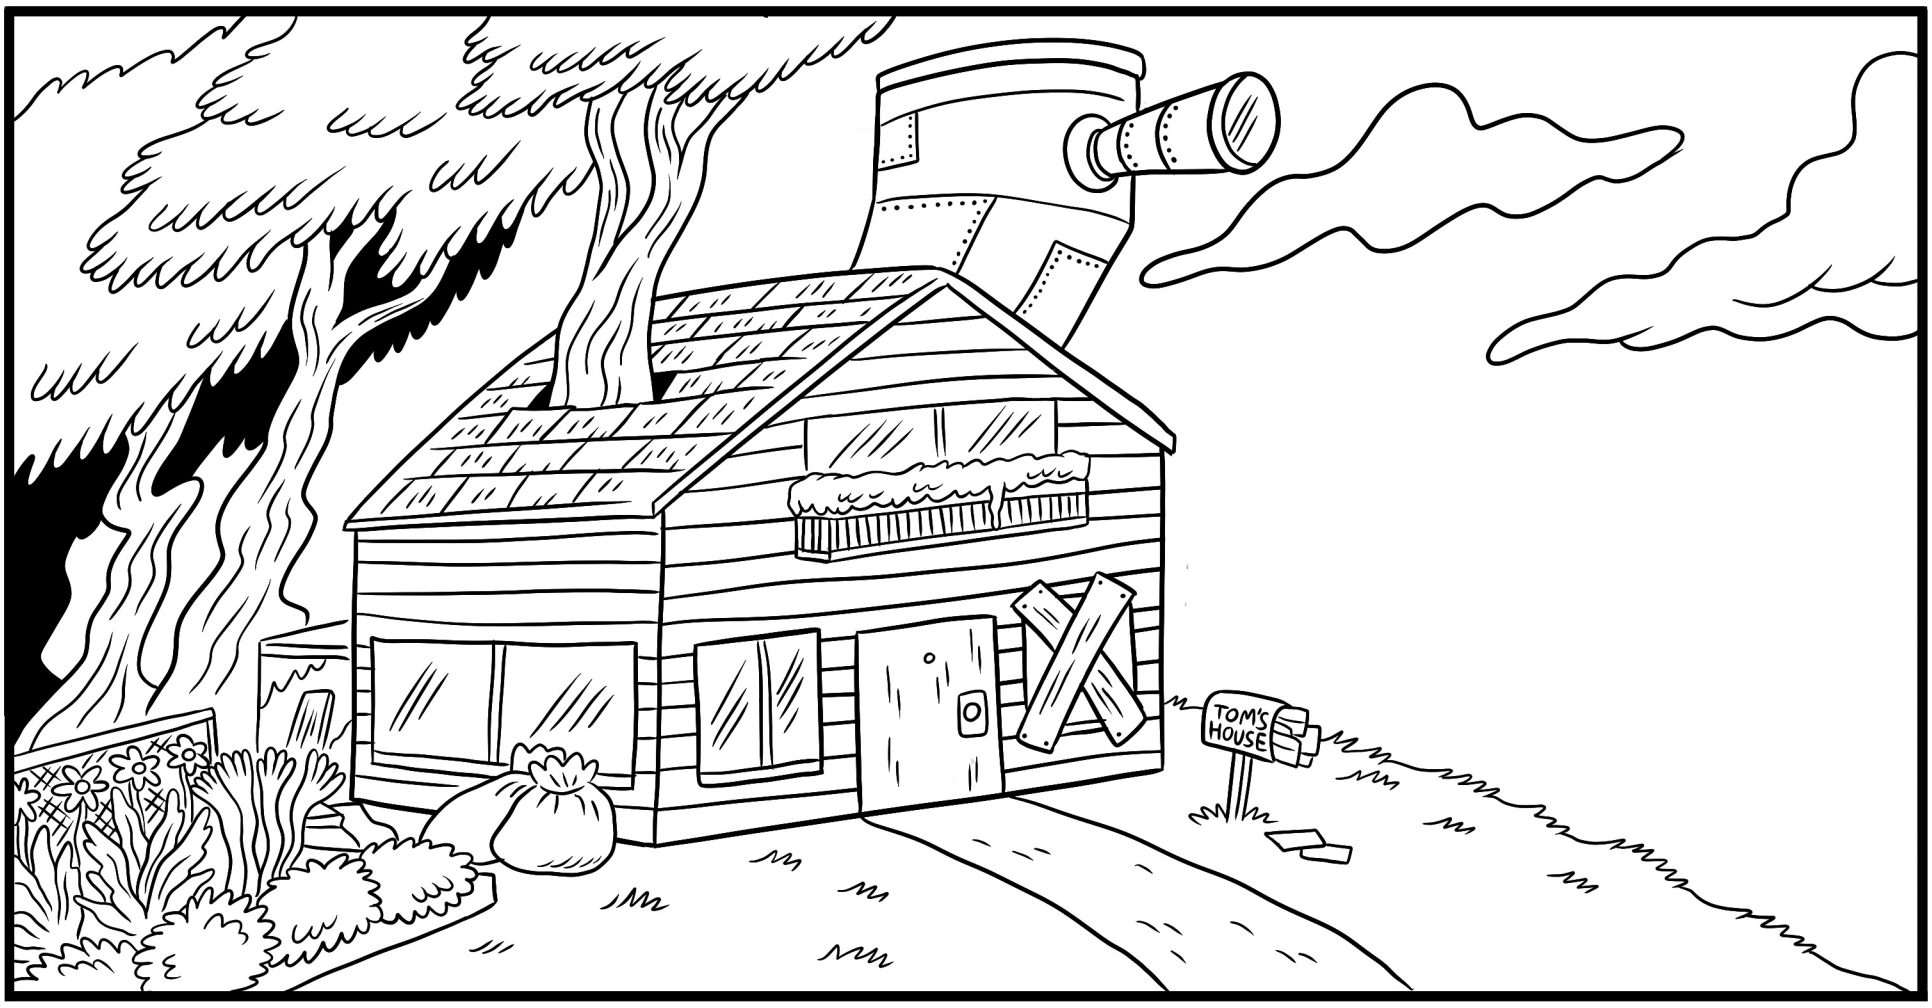


WOW!

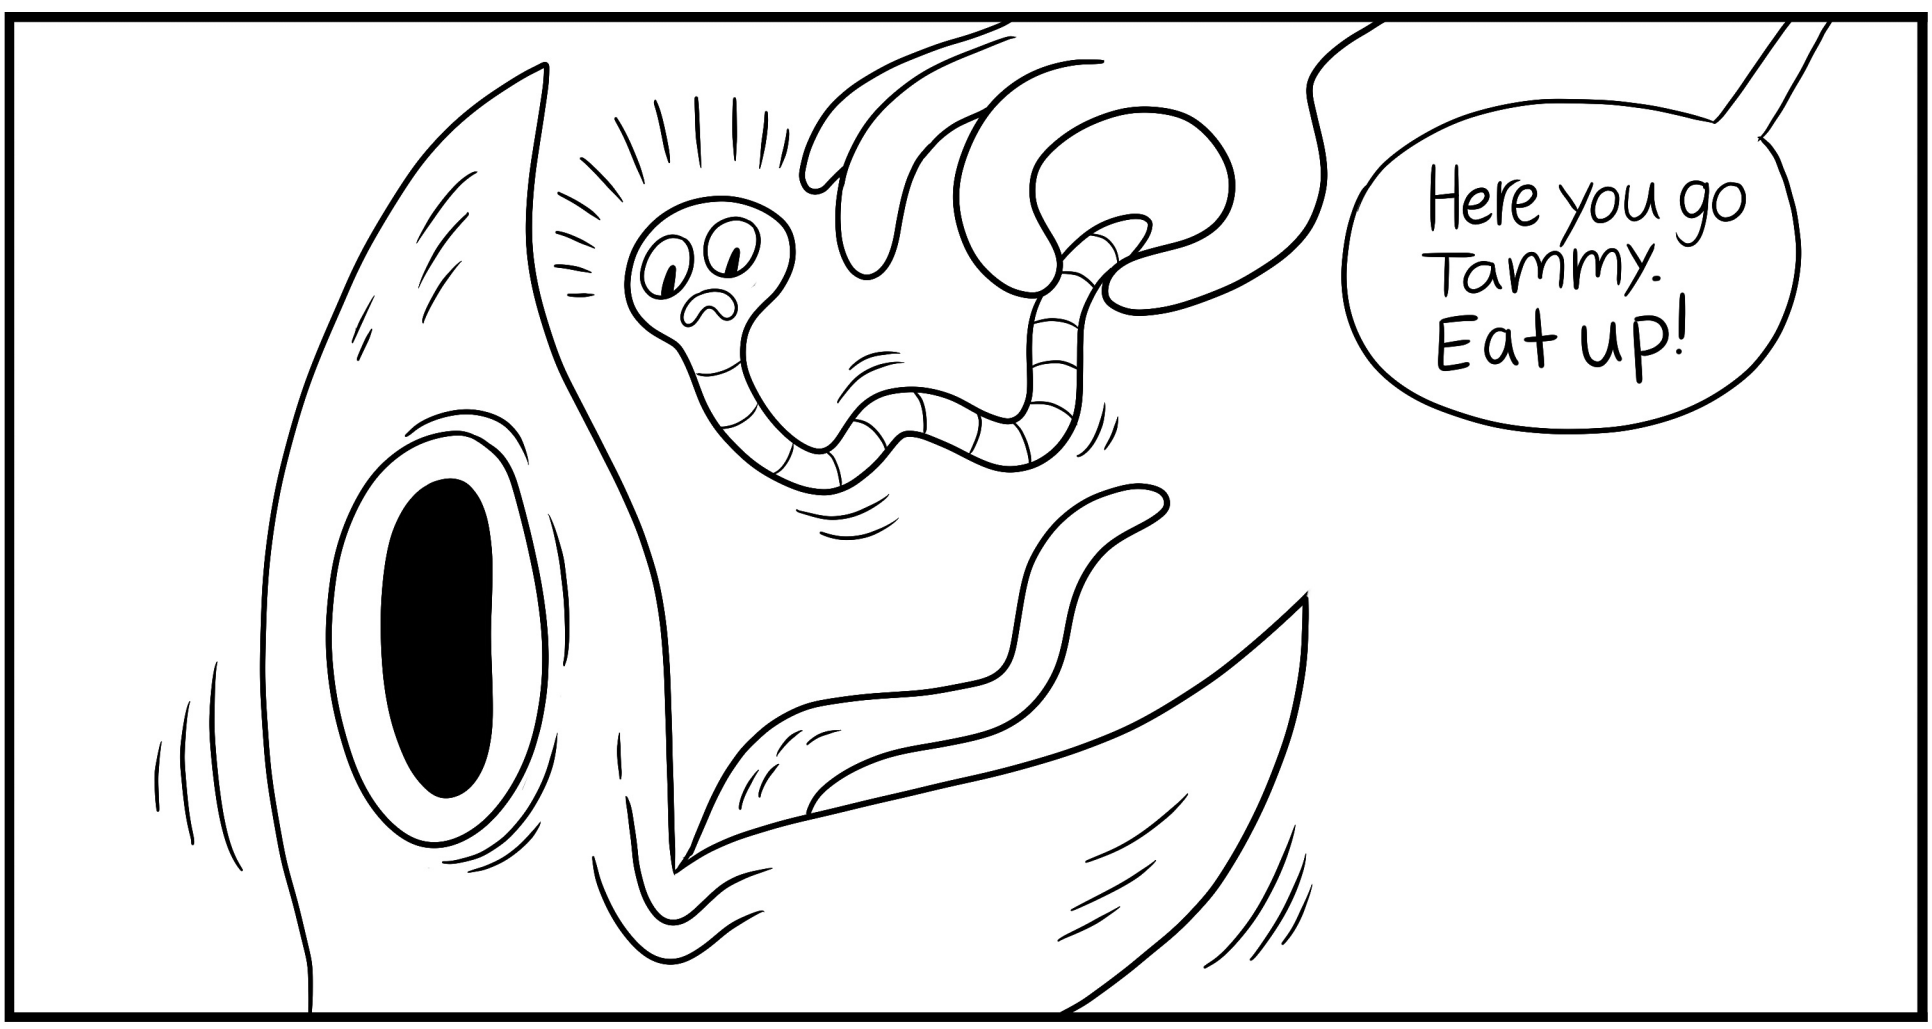




I gotta get home to my babies!



TOM'S HOUSE



Here you go Tammy. Eat up!

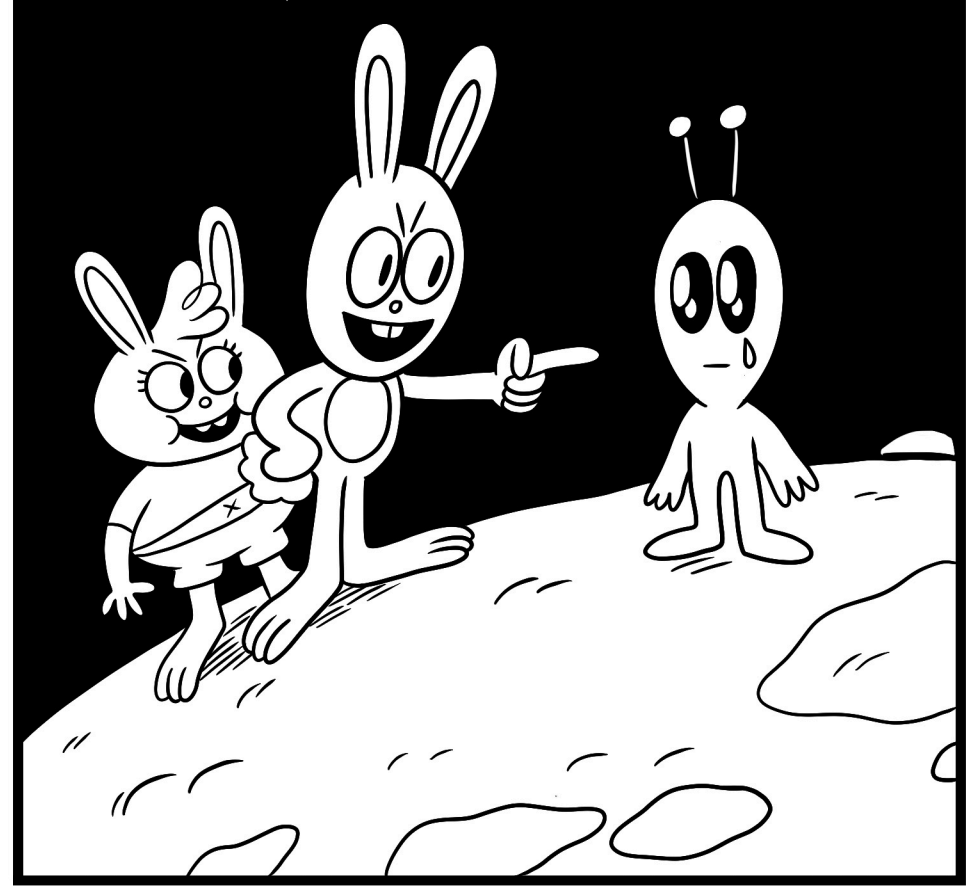
Sorry Mx Worm. Rest in peace
BABIES

Personally I'm a vegan, but hey, baby needs her worms!

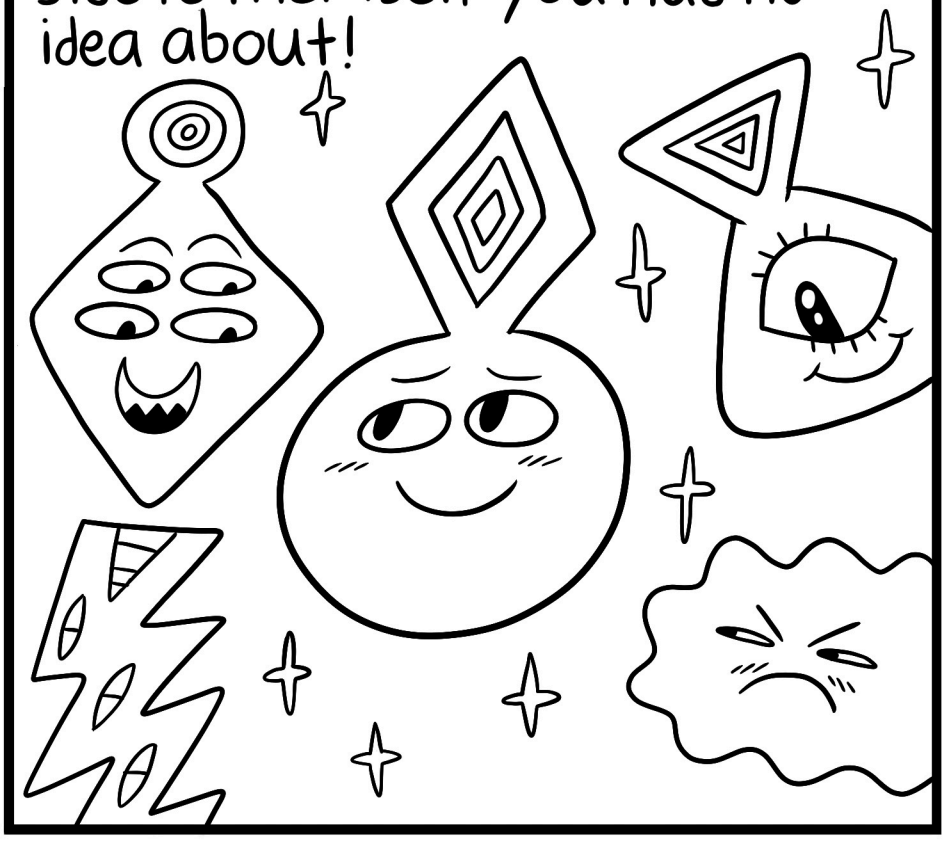
This certainly was a highly informative day! What exactly did we learn though?

Well, we learned nutheads enjoy literature written by war criminals...

rombits have no respect for wildlife preservation laws...



and sometimes a friend can have a whole other interesting side to themself you had no idea about!



Very interesting stuff, if I do say so myself!

Once again I thank you for Viewing this program. Your support means the world to me!

I hope to see you again tomorrow! Have a nice day!

H-hey Dad. you awake?

What are you even doing?

I don't know I'm just trying to talk to him! Why do you care?!

He can't hear you though. It's pointless you don't know that for sure Tammy.

The entire time he's been here he's barely reacted to anything. Trust me.

Whatever. It just feels nice to do, ok?

Okay
sorry I guess.

Oh hey Lucy!

Hi. How's he doing?

The usual. Doctor says nothing major changed.

That's good

OK cool.

You're really on top of taking care of him, y'know.

You're basically an unofficial staff member at this point.

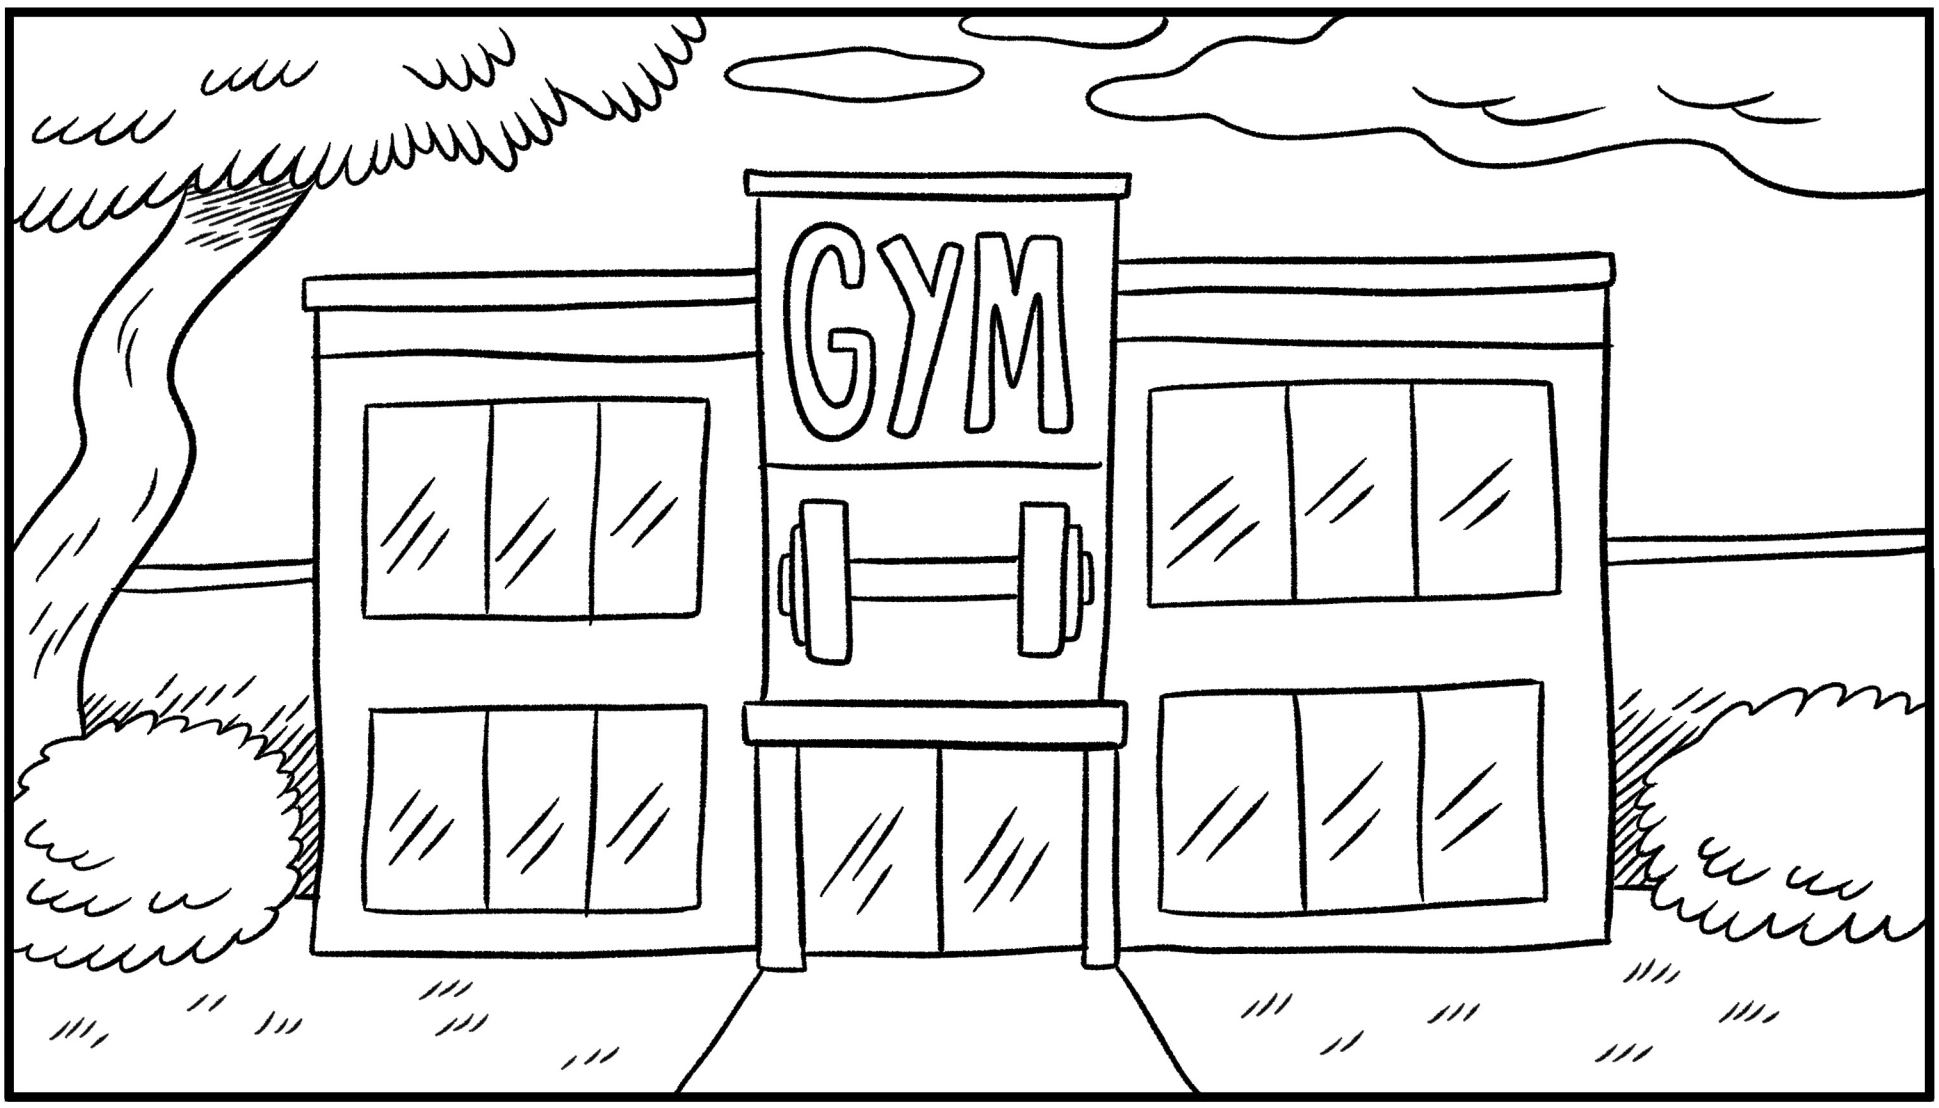
Ha.

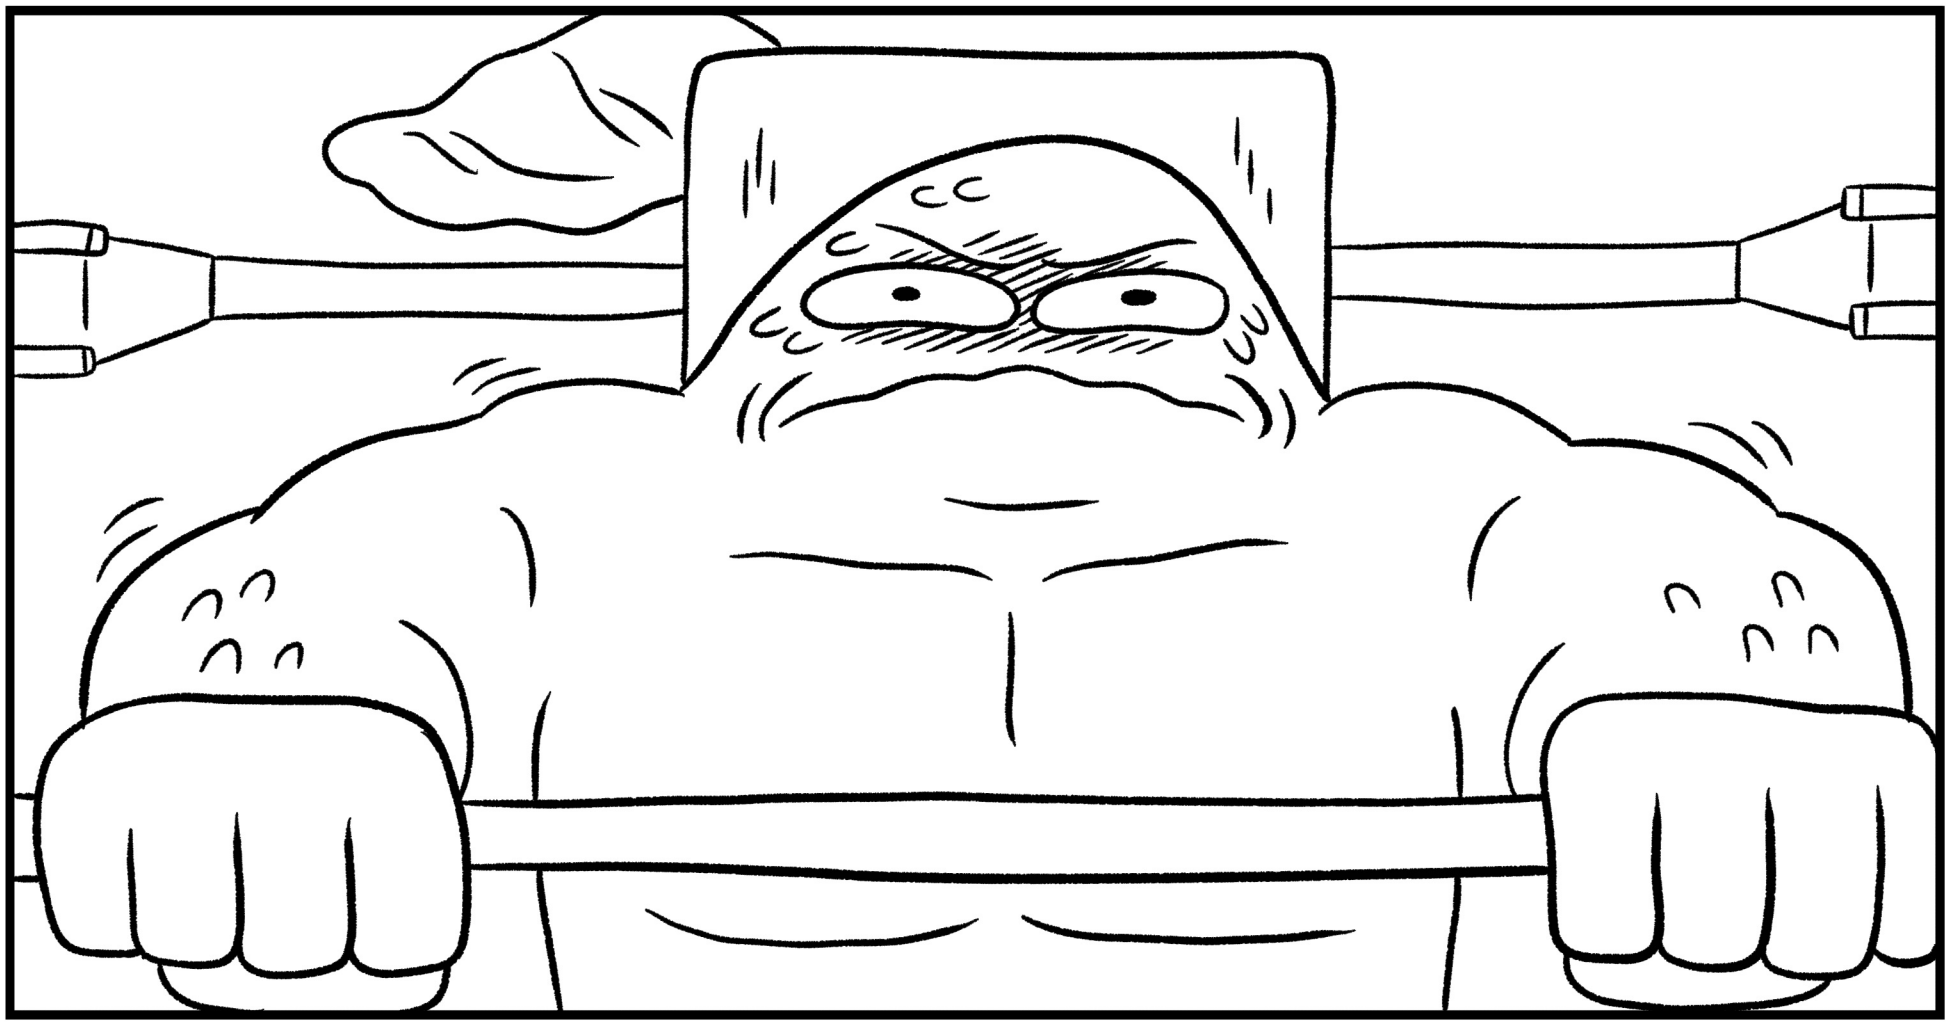
I'm used to it.

I've always taken care of him.

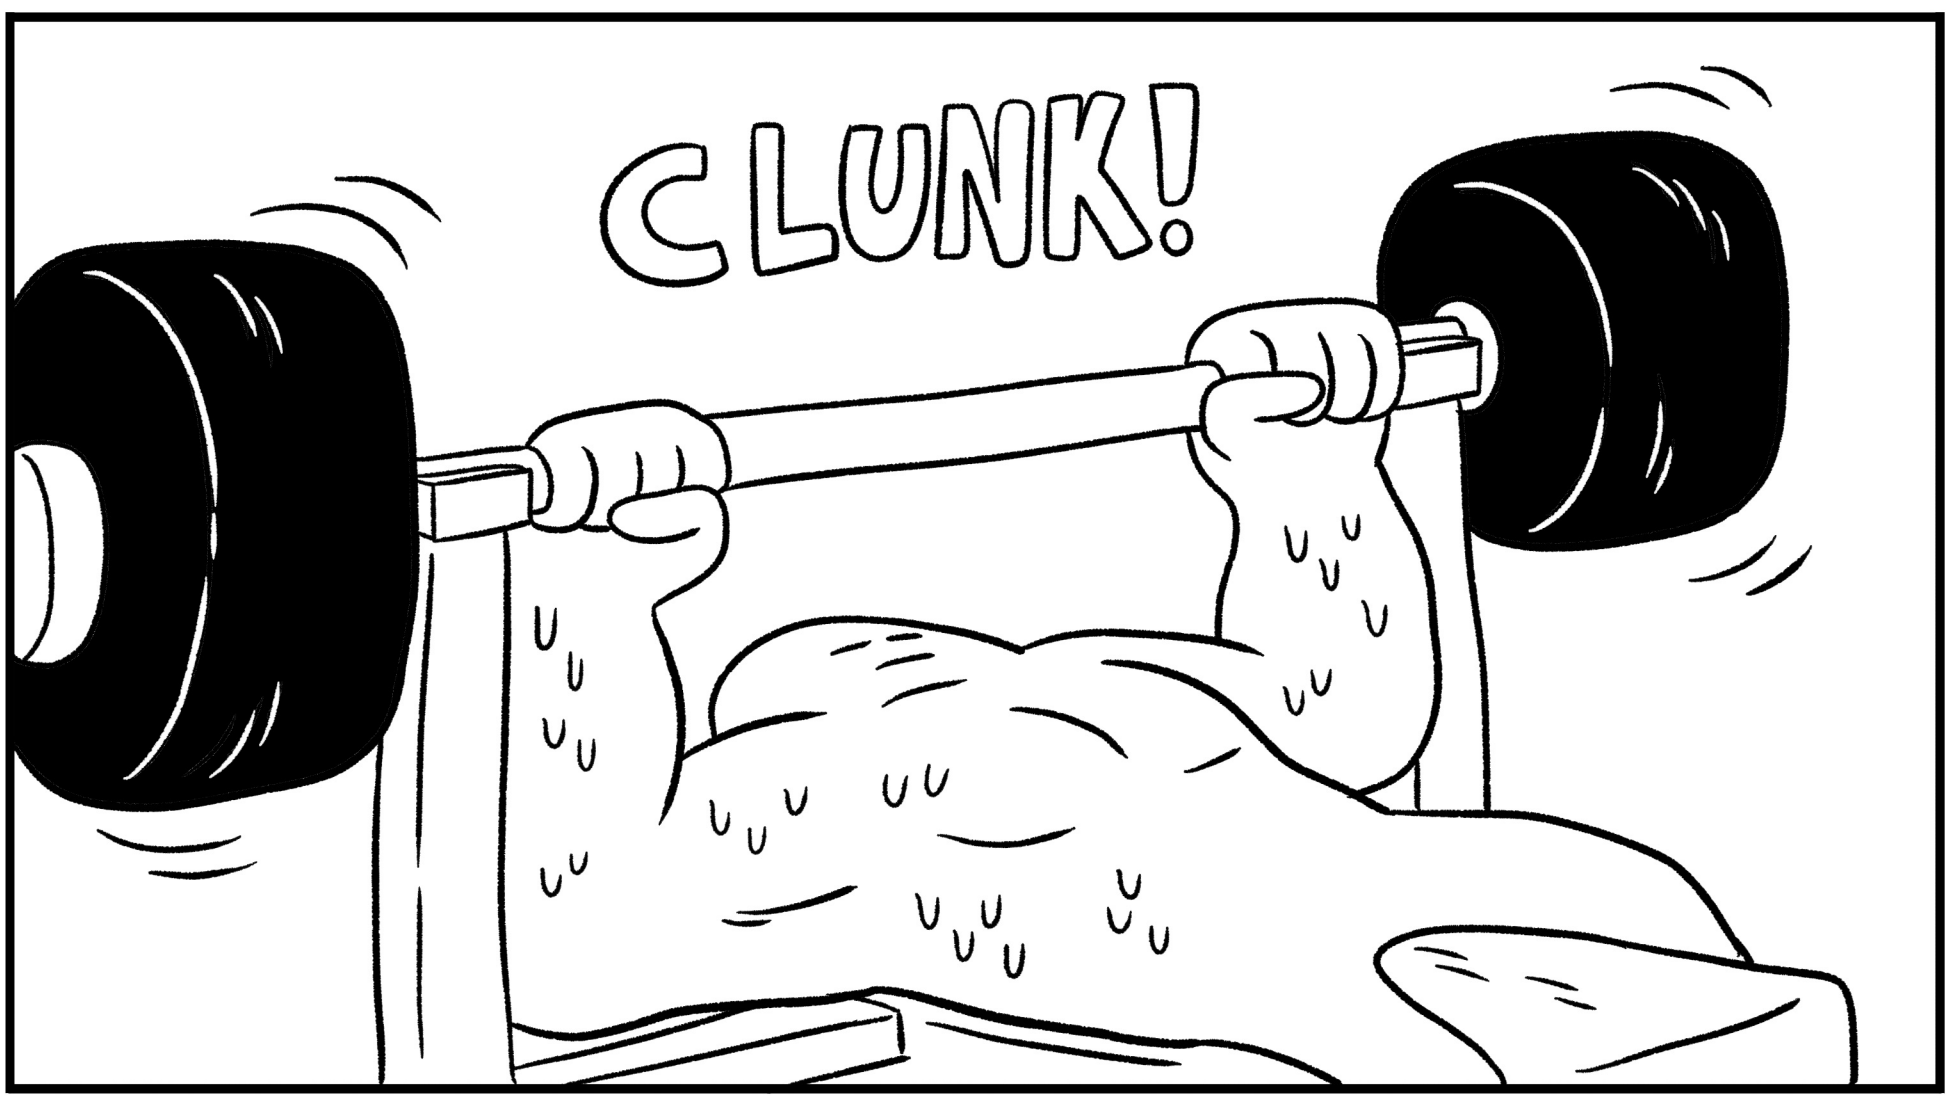
I don't mind though.

It's my place in all this. My siblings are understandably too hung up on their own stuff.

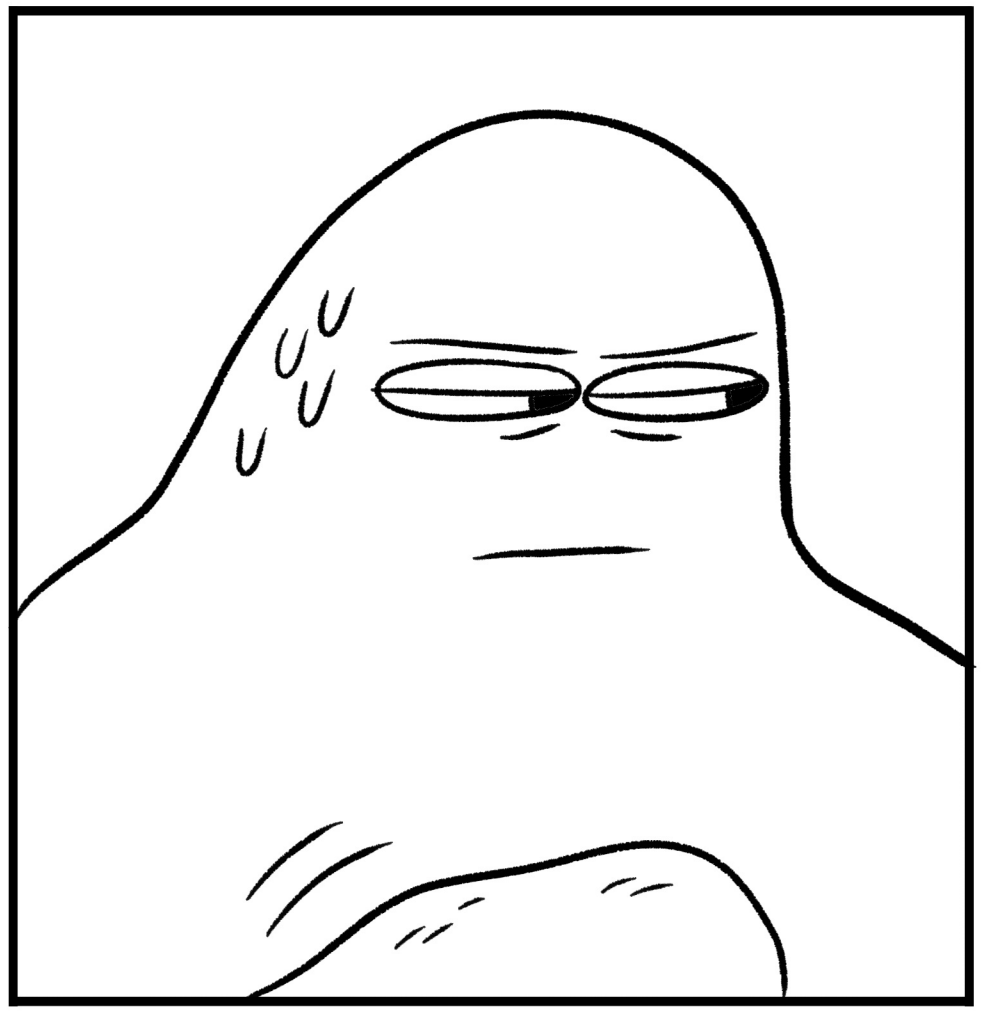


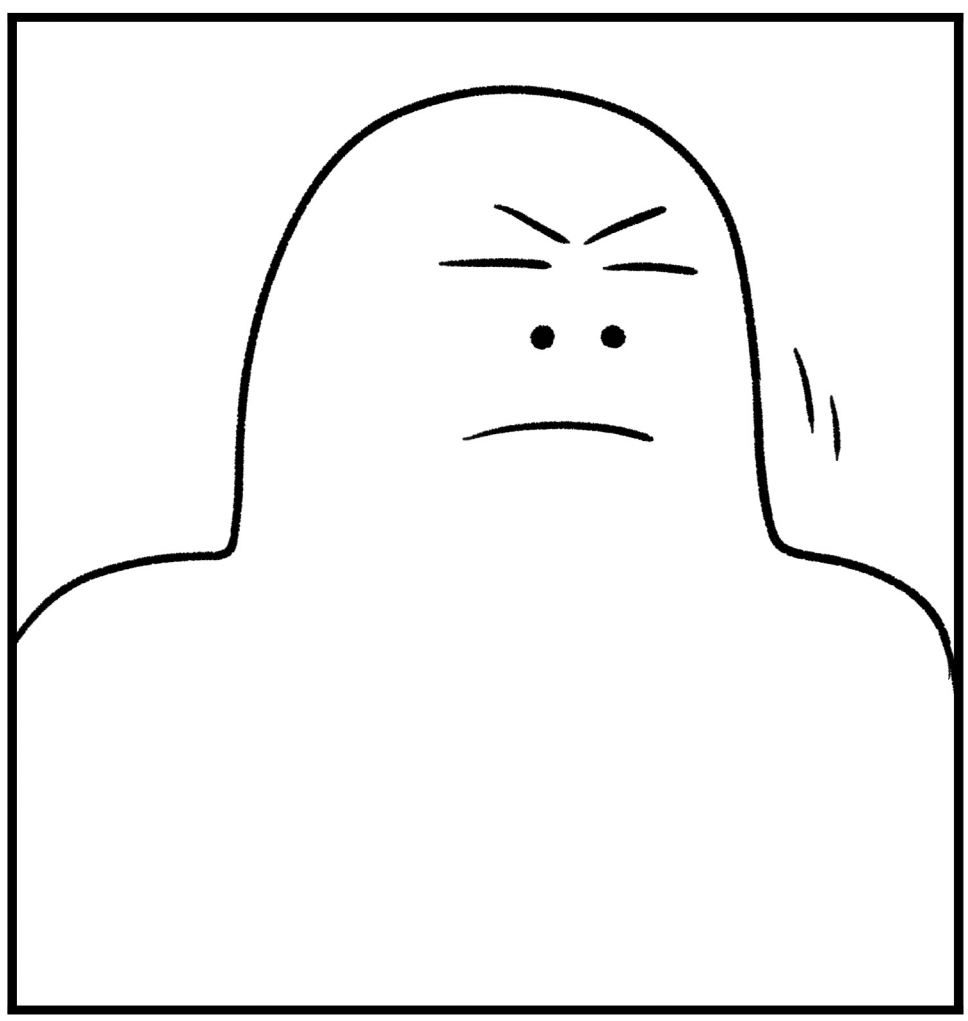


CHRRRRRRRRRGGHH!!



CLUNK!





sigh...

Dad?
Why don't we go to school?

Because we need to help the show go on!

The only school that matters is the school of nature! The school of helping daddy with OUR nature show!

Now help daddy out of this chomper's mouth so I don't die.

Father and I were just stopping by the old neighbourhood for a promotional event.

HORSE SHIT. Stay the fuck away from my dad!

Bea! I'm hurt!

To think Father and I even have ulterior motives for our visit!

Although now that you present the idea...

HA! I knew it!!

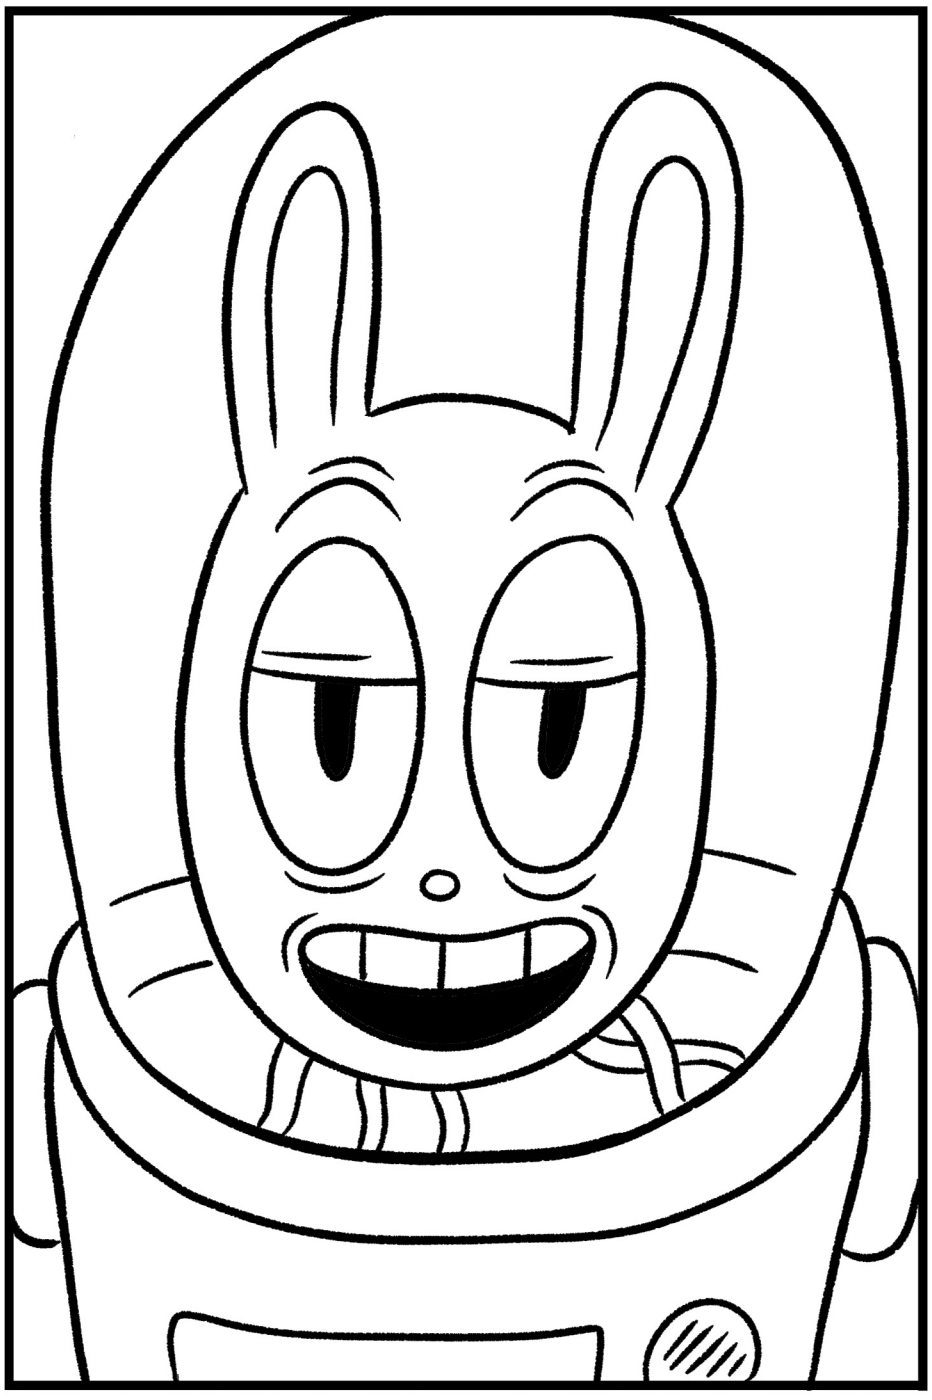
What do you even want from him?! He's DYING.

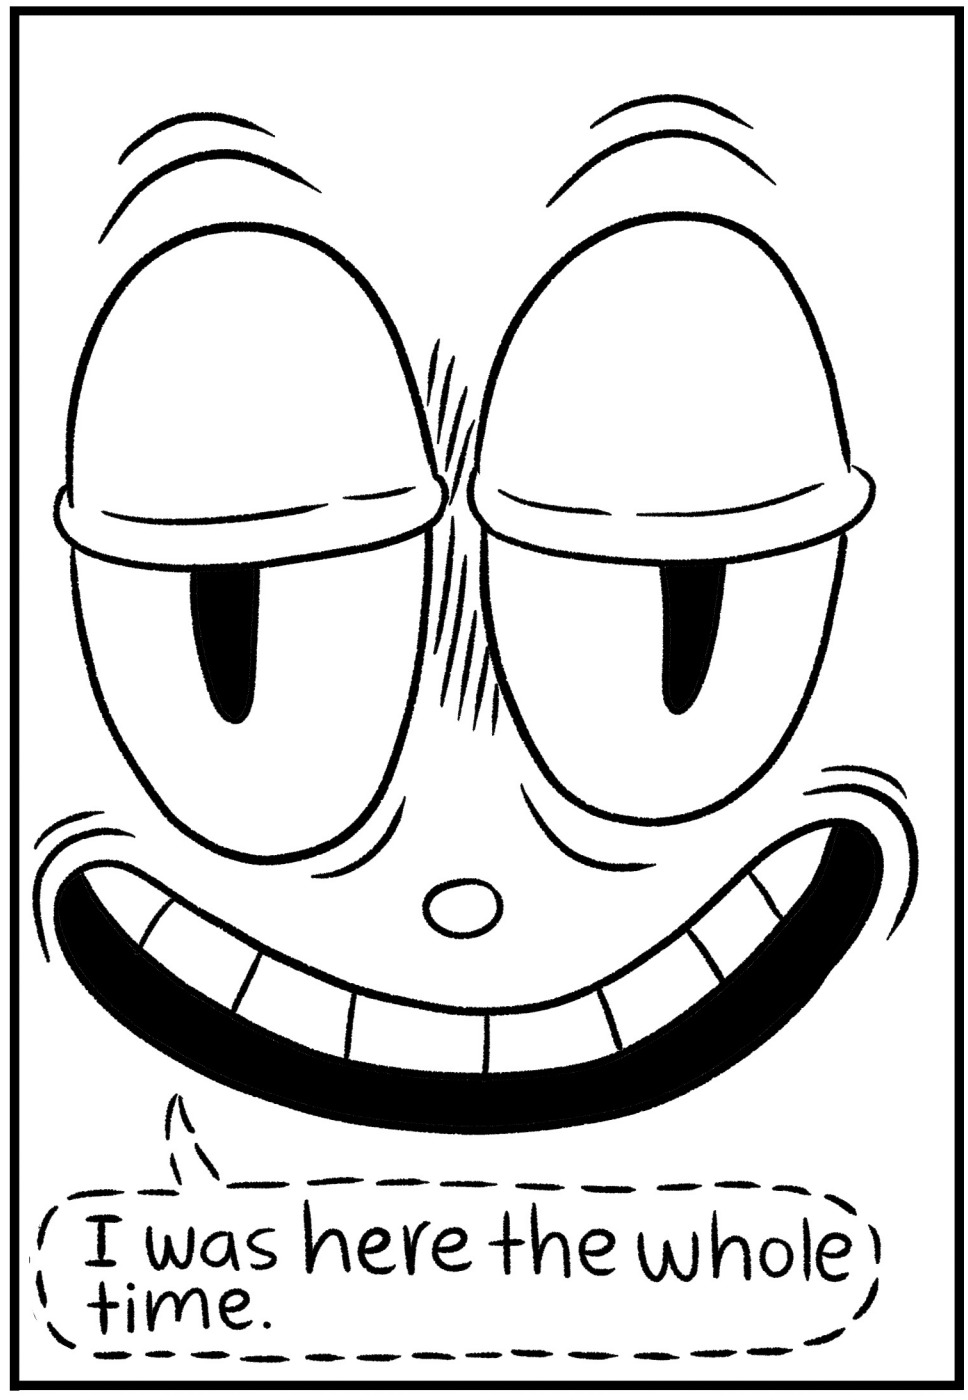
It's just a little visit, sweetheart! Our final goodbyes and all that.

Nothing wrong about saying goodbye.

Meanwhile...

NEED TO PEE.





I was here the whole time.

Well, well, Tom, my old friend!

It looks like this is your big finale!

Do you like my new duds? Being a billionare does have these sorts of advantages.

My moon facilities are booming! I really do have to thank you again for helping me find that prime real estate. People sure do love shipping their crazy uncles up there!

My god, Tom, look at you! Rotting away like a piece of bad meat.

Dying...What a terrifying experience...

Luckily that's a non issue for me!

You see Tom...

I WON!!

I ALWAYS WIN!! YOU'RE DYING AND I'M NOT!!

I PUT MY HEAD IN A ROBOT BODY! I'M GOING TO LIVE FOREVER! AND DO YOU KNOW WHY?

BECAUSE THE ROMBIT ALWAYS WINS! THAT'S THE RULE!

YOU'RE PATHETIC!!!

WAHAHAHAHAHAHA!!!

Uh hey. What are you doing in my dad's room?

Well it's the end of the show!

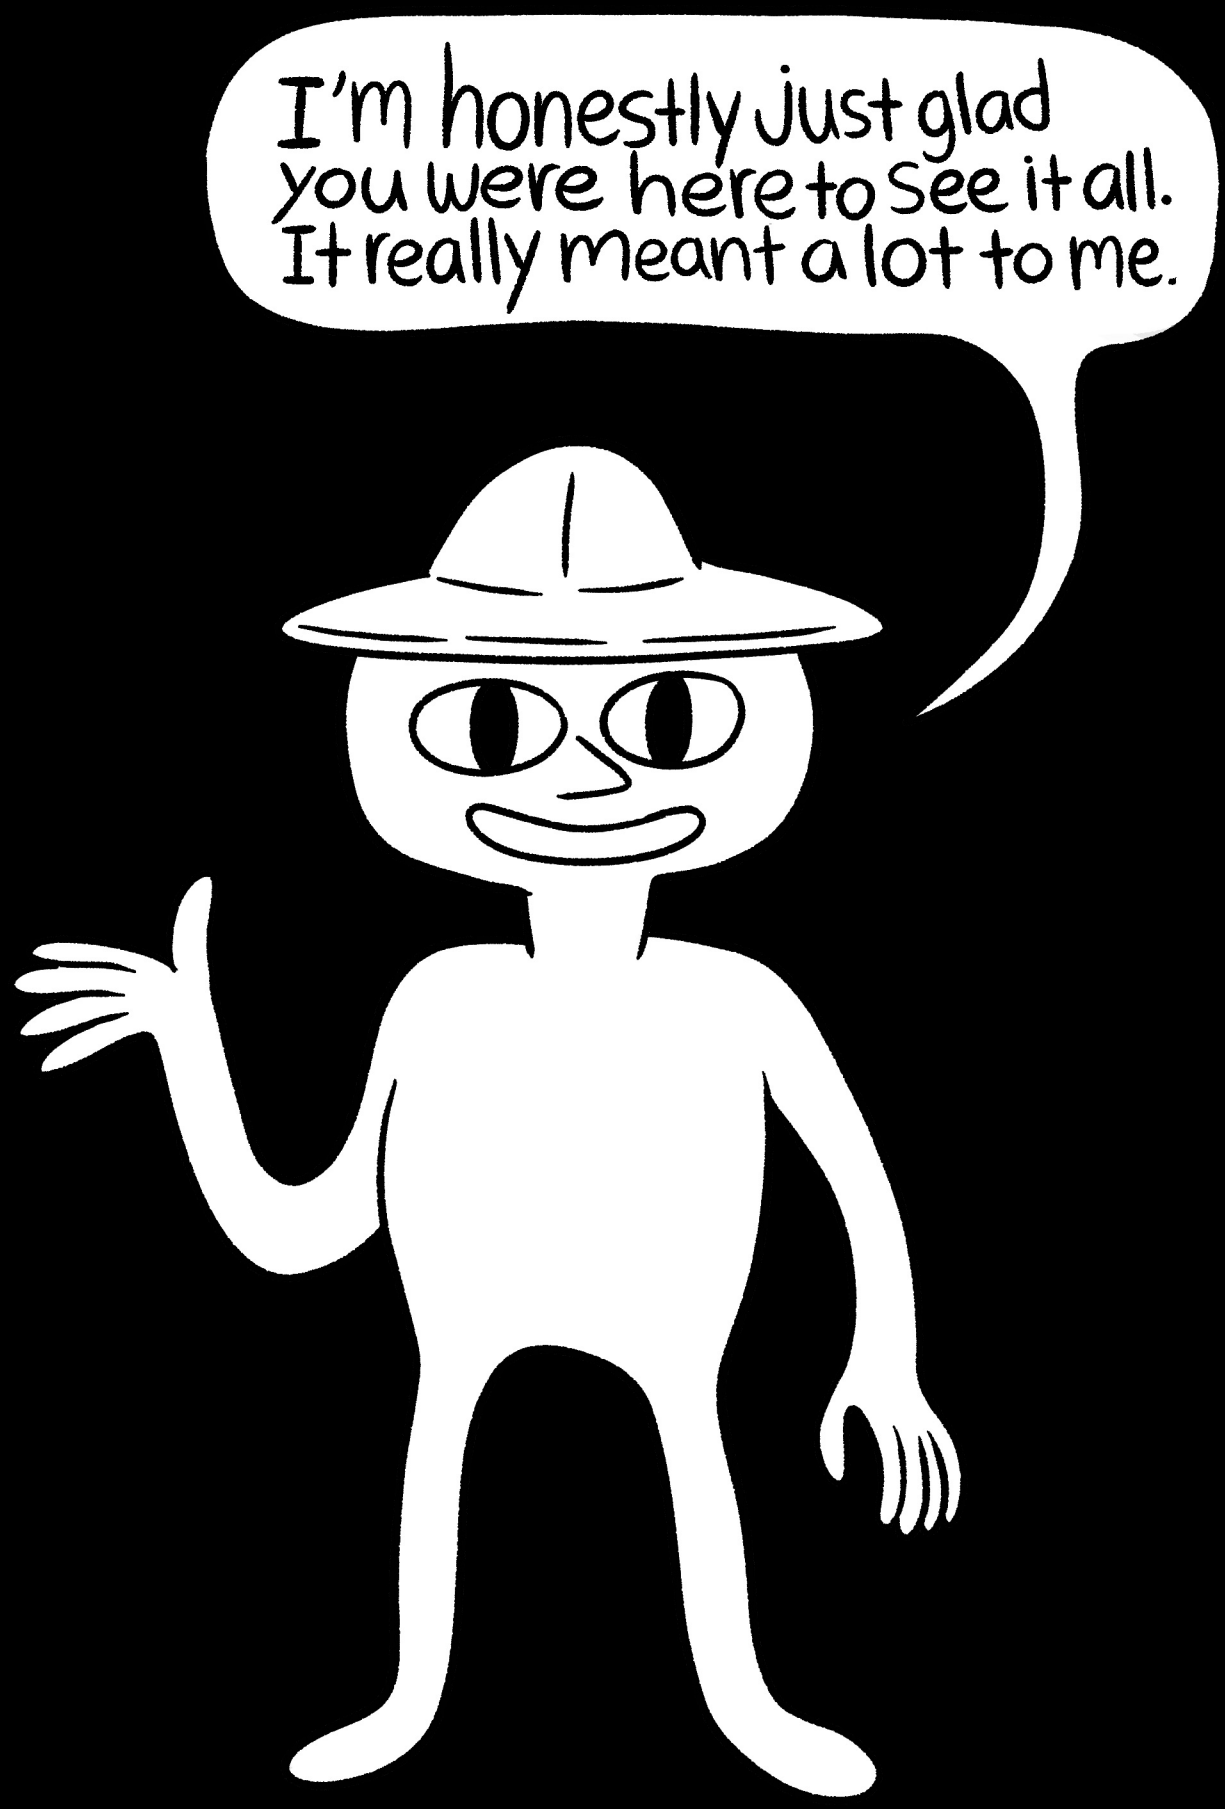
Did it all make sense? Be honest it's okay.



I'm honestly just glad you were here to see it all. It really meant a lot to me.

Thank you for everything.
